WIFE SEEKS $30,000 IN LOVE TANGLE

Mrs. Edith H. Spreckels-Wakefield Accused of Alienating Affections of Rodney Kendrick, Artist

Suit For Divorce Making Statutory Allegation Is Filed; Plot to Buy Husband Is Recounted

Edith Huntington Spreckels-Wakefield, wife of Franklin Wakefield and former wife of John D. Spreckels Jr., must tell in court the details of her alleged attempt to "buy" the affections of Rodney Kendrick, young newspaper artist.

Action forcing Mrs. Wakefield to an explanation was taken today by Mrs. Nell Kendrick, sick wife of the young artist and mother of his fourteen-month-old child, June, in the filing in the Superior Court of two suits, one for divorce and the other for alienation of affections.

Mrs. Kendrick filed a voluminous complaint against Mrs. Wakefield, charging her with an attempt to buy Kendrick from his wife and daughter for the sum of $100 a month to continue during the life of Mrs. Kendrick. Mrs. Kendrick asks $30,000 damages and costs.

In her suit for divorce against Kendrick, in which she asks alimony in the sum of $100, Mrs. Kendrick bases her action on a statutory charge, and Mrs. Wakefield again is mentioned as the affiant of Kendrick.

CASES ASSIGNED FOR HEARING.

The two legal actions were filed in the superior courts this morning and immediately assigned to departments for hearing. The divorce action will be tried in the court of Superior Judge Dudley Kinsell and the alienation suit will be heard by Superior Judge A. F. S. Sore.

In her action for divorce Mrs. Kendrick claims that she and her husband were married at Elizabeth, N. J., on March 3, 1919, and that their home was away until Kendrick met Mrs. Wakefield and the society woman became "infatuated" with him.

Three specific charges are made by Mrs. Kendrick in her complaint for divorce. The first two are set at Sausalito on or about July 4 and July 15, and the third from August 7 to August 20, a time, according to the allegation, when Kendrick and Mrs. Wakefield were on a camping trip in the Sierra Nevada mountains.

According to Mrs. Kendrick, her husband is a newspaper artist who earns when he is working about $50 a week. She asks for alimony in the sum of $100 monthly for the support of her and the child June and an additional $400, half of which is for attorney's fees and half for court costs.

In the suit against Mrs. Wakefield, Mrs. Kendrick tells for the first time her story of the love battle wherein husband and wife and the other woman sat and discussed the terms by which a husband could change from one home to another.

OFFER OF $100 MONTHLY TOLD.

Mrs. Wakefield is accused of first alienating the affections of the husband of Mrs. Kendrick and then offering to pay the wife $100 a month for the period of her natural life. According to Mrs. Kendrick, she refused to be a party to the transaction.

It was in March of this year after the Kendrick had enjoyed almost three years of "happy married life" that the newspaper artist met and became infatuated with Mrs. Wakefield, according to his wife's complaint, and it was at that time that Mrs. Wakefield "conceived the idea of separating husband and wife and alienating the affections of the husband, endeavoring through various arts, artifices and means to cause plaintiff's husband to desert her, and disrupt an otherwise happy married life."

The actual disruption of the Kendrick home took place in June of this year, according to Mrs. Kendrick's complaint, four months after she had come to Stockton in the interests of her health. She remained in Stockton until the first day of August.

Four months after Mrs. Kendrick and her baby moved to Stockton, according to her complaint, Mrs. Wakefield, "in pursuance with designs to destroy the home life of the plaintiff and her husband and to entice and to lead the plaintiff"

World's Fate In U.S. Hands, Declares Cox

LONDON, Aug. 26.—(By International News Service).—"The storm center of the whole economic world is Central Europe," said James M. Cox, Democratic nominee for president of the United States in 1920, in a statement issued here today. Cox was the honor guest at one of the famous breakfasts given by Premier Lloyd George at his official residence at 10 Downing street.

"The fate of the world is in the hands of America," continued the statement. "The days wasted in procrastination at the present time will bring years of self-reproach later on."

Cox urged that the United States take the lead in untangling the European snarl, which is getting more serious every day. He suggested that Herbert Hoover be appointed special commissioner to suggest remedies for the critical state of European affairs.

FRENCH WARSHIP SINKS; 3 MISSING

Huge Cruiser, Driven on Rocks by Gale, May Be Total Loss.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—(By International News Service).—The 24,000-ton French battleship France sunk in Quiberon bay with the loss of three lives early today. The warship, which was returning from naval maneuvers, was trying to enter Quiberon harbor in a gale when the wind drove her upon submerged rocks. The ministry of marine reported that there were twenty-five officers and 900 men on board at the time of the disaster. The ship was driven ashore at 10 o'clock Friday. Her hull was pierced but she did not sink until 4 o'clock this morning.

The bay of Quiberon is 100 miles southeast of Brest and about 40 miles from the port of St. Nazaire. The France was constructed in 1913 at a cost of 2,245,000 pounds sterling.

Hurts Prove Fatal To Stockton Cripple

STOCKTON, Aug. 26.—Twenty years ago, while going to church in a dense fog, Pat McHugh stepped in front of a street car. His legs were so badly crushed they had to be amputated. Since then he has sold pencils, going about on a little roller cart. Yesterday he was sitting on the sidewalk. Mrs. Emma Pollard, driving a big car, narrowly escaped being hit by a truck. In her excitement she stepped on the gas instead of the brake. Her car went over on the sidewalk and crushed McHugh against a plate glass window. He was rushed to the hospital by the ambulance. He was 63 years old and leaves five sisters.

Boy Hit by Truck In Critical State

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Barry Odell, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Odell, 14 Dale street, is in the hospital with a fractured skull and is in a critical condition as the result of being struck by an automobile driven by A. T. Stack, proprietor of the Martinez Steam Laundry, at Pacheco road and Dale street, yesterday at noon. The lad is being attended by Dr. E. W. Merrieth, who declares his condition to be very grave.

It was in March of this year after the Kendrick had enjoyed almost three years of "happy married life" that the newspaper artist met and became infatuated with Mrs. Wakefield, according to his wife's complaint, and it was at that time that Mrs. Wakefield "conceived the idea of separating husband and wife and alienating the affections of the husband, endeavoring through various arts, artifices and means to cause plaintiff's husband to desert her, and disrupt an otherwise happy married life."

FILM ACTOR SLAIN IN ROW ABOUT WIFE

Motion Picture Director, As Result of Woman's Story, Summons Picture Player and Challenges to Duel

Victim, Dying, Scribbles Accusation Against Slayer; Offense During Lake Visit Blamed For the Tragedy

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(By International News Service).—John Bergen, motion picture actor, lies dead today, the victim of a tragedy with all the thrills and sensations of a film drama. He was reported to have refused to participate in a duel with the husband of a woman he was alleged to have wronged.

As he lay dying Bergen drew from his pocket a slip of paper on which were the scribbled words: "George Cline killed me."

Cline was arrested and today was a prisoner in the Hacksack, N. J. jail, charged with murder. Cline insists that he shot in self-defense when Bergen attacked him.

Bergen, it appeared, has been summoned unexpectedly to the Cline home, where he was suddenly confronted by the husband.

The tragedy took place in the Cline home—a pretty vine-clad place—in Edgewater, N. J., just across the Hudson river from Grant's Tomb, on Riverside drive.

CLINE MAN CHARGED AS MURDERER. Cline, directing motion pictures for the William Fox company at Fort Lee, in the presence of his wife and her two brothers, accused Bergen of wrecking his home.

Cline, following the shooting, told the police he had sent for Bergen after exacting from his wife details of an incident which, he declared, she said took place at Saranac Lake, N. Y., recently. At the time, Cline said, his wife and Bergen were at the lake taking part in a film production. When he accused Bergen of having seduced his wife, Bergen allegedly admitted the charge, declaring:

"Well, what of it?" Bergen also made remarks disparaging Mrs. Cline, the husband said.

Thereupon, Cline says, he retorted: "Well, so long as you feel that way about it, let us settle this matter like two men."

Crossing the floor of the dining-room, Cline drew from the drawer of a closet two dueling pistols.

"FIGHT IT OUT," HUSBAND CHALLENGES. "There is a big empty room up stairs; we will go up there and fight it out," suggested Cline. "No one will bother us. It is the chivalrous thing to do."

The wife stood by, her hands clasped on her breast, her face ashen with fear. Her brothers made no move. Upstairs the Cline children, aged 7 and 5, lay asleep.

The two men started up the stairs, bent on their grim business, each with a pistol in his hand. Bergen went first, followed by Cline.

According to the story told to the police by Cline, the actor suddenly halted on the stairway, turned and pointed his weapon at Cline. Cline said he leaped forward and attempted to wrest the pistol from Bergen's hand. The pistol fell to the stairway. Then, according to Cline, the actor drew a blackjack from his pocket and lunged a blow at his head. It was then, Cline said, that he raised his pistol and fired.

The bullet struck the actor just over the heart and he crumpled up, the body sliding down the stairway past Cline, leaving a trail of blood in its wake.

The body was stopped at the bottom of the stairs just in front of Mrs. Cline and her brothers. Bergen was still conscious. With a painful effort he staggered to his feet and made for the door. He lurched from the porch and disappeared in the darkness.

A half-hour later the dying actor was found lying on the river road near the Edgewater ferry station, nearly half a mile from the place where he had been shot. A taxi cab chauffeur saw the body lying in the roadway in a pool of blood. Bergen was still conscious. With his dying breath he asked for a piece of paper and pencil and scrawled the accusation against Cline. He drew this from his pocket when a policeman came up.

Bergen died before a doctor arrived. He was conscious and gave to the last.

Cline told the police he had met Bergen at Salt Lake City, Utah, and had befriended him, helping him to make his way upward in the movie picture profession. He said that Bergen had plied his wife with wine at Saranac Lake.

Millions Bet at Moscow Casino; Only in Roubles

MOSCOW, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press).—A gambling casino rivaling famous Monte Carlo in magnitude of play has been opened in Moscow. Crowds are continually milling about the various tables from 8 o'clock in the evening until 10 in the morning.

There is a scattering representation of foreigners, but those who spend the night at baccarat, roulette and other games where the minimum play ranges from one million to one hundred million roubles, are mostly Moscovites. Millions of roubles change hands on each deal at baccarat.

The profit taken by the house goes to the government in taxes or famine benefits. The house percentage of five per cent is reported on one night to have totaled more than fifty billion roubles, indicating that the play reached "one trillion roubles, or the equivalent of $25,000."

Well-dressed men and women rub elbows with the unshaven and poorly-garbed at tables where the croupiers speak French and money changes against gold and foreign currency. Casinos also have been opened in Petrograd and other places under the recent government decree legalizing certain forms of gambling.

RUSSIA IS READY TO AID GERMANY

Would Not Remain Quiet if France Invades Ruhr and Enlists Poland.

MOSCOW, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press).—Russia has already reduced her fighting forces to 800,000 men, and is always ready to enter any disarmament conference which gives guarantees of success. She does not anticipate any immediate intervention, but considers that an attack is always possible, and it is doubtful if she could remain quiet in the event that France invaded the Ruhr region, and enlisted Poland in a renewal of the conflict with Germany.

M. Trozky declared that the Soviet government prefers the humane method of settling its opponents in Russia rather than crushing them, but added that the political freedom of party organization will be restored in Russia only when the power of capital is broken.

Regarding the American relief administration, the minister explained that he considered it not only a humanitarian organization, but also an "instrument" through which America could be informed of Russian conditions. He added:

"I am tranquil regarding the results of their investigations."

Explaining the international situation with reference to Russia's needs for defense, Trozky said: "Who can tell what will come of the Franco-British conference? No one."

Trozky's law hardened when the Associated Press correspondent asked if the government had any intention of restoring the liberty of political organizations to Russian parties other than the Soviet.

"When capitalism is beaten!" was his answer.

Anthracite Strike Peace Predicted

By JACK DARROCK. United Press Staff Correspondent. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—Hope for early settlement of the anthracite suspension has been revived.

After a conference last night with John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, Senator George Wharton Pepper, Pennsylvania, declared that "no insurmountable difficulties exist in the path of an early settlement of the anthracite strike."

Indication that the joint conference which ended abruptly last Tuesday may be resumed in the near future, is found in reports that Secretary of Labor Davis and Hymel Davies, chief conciliator of the bureau of labor, probably will hold a conference with Lewis some time today.

40 New Communist Arrests Scheduled

By UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Aug. 26.—Twenty-three additional warrants, calling for a total of 40 arrests, including five women, were issued today in connection with the Communist convention raided Tuesday by Federal officers at Bridgman, Mich.

Twelve Communist "refugees," hiding in New York and Chicago, Cleveland and other cities, will be taken into custody. It was announced today by Federal authorities.

Congressman Nolan Survives Operation. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—It was announced at St. Mary's hospital that Congressman John I. Nolan, who was operated upon there today, had stood the operation well and "was doing nicely."

FIGHT BEGINS AS DUBLIN IS IN MOURNING

Irregulars Attack Near City Hall While Hundreds Are Passing Bier of Collins; All Buildings Are Draped

Monday Is Proclaimed Day of Sorrow Throughout Free State; Rebels Explode Mine Under National Troops

DUBLIN, Aug. 26.—While hundreds of mourners were passing before the bier of Michael Collins in the city hall a battle between irregulars and Free State troops broke out here today.

The attack was opened by irregulars in the vicinity of the city hall. Firing continued several hours.

By GEORGE MACDONAGH, United Press Staff Correspondent.

DUBLIN, Aug. 26.—Dublin today is a city of mourning—and machine guns. Snouts of rapid fire rifles peep out from behind somber ribbons of crepe, draped on buildings in memory of General Michael Collins whose body lies in state in the city hall.

The Free State, while outwardly devoting every attention to honoring Collins and making ready for his funeral, is rushing preparations to resist any attempt by Eamonn de Valera and his rebel army to seize this opportunity of capturing the capital and setting up a republic. Reports still persist that de Valera is in County Louth, planning an assault on Dublin over the week-end.

The government today proclaimed Monday a day of mourning throughout Free State territory. All work and commerce, except that which is essential, will be suspended for the entire day in Dublin.

By DANIEL O'CONNELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

DUBLIN, Aug. 26.—One Free State soldier was killed and many others were wounded in an ambush attack near Nenagh today. The irregulars exploded a mine. The Free State troops gave battle to the rebels and a violent conflict followed.

Richard Mulcahy, successor to Michael Collins as commander-in-chief of the Irish Free State army, massed troops all around Dublin today to cope with demonstrations in connection with Collins' funeral and prevent any attack on the city by irregulars.

TWELVE IRREGULARS, ARMS, BOMBS TAKEN

DUBLIN, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press).—National troops, operating in the Ballinaderreen area of County Mayo under Colonel Commandant McCabe, captured twelve irregulars, together with arms, ammunition and bombs, and two automobiles, according to an official statement. Among the prisoners were two of the irregulars' leaders in eastern Mayo named Corney and Josiah Kelly.

The statement adds that Lieutenant McCormack, who was killed in the ambush yesterday at Glasheen, was "deliberately shot while bandaging his wounded comrade, Captain Rattigan."

MINE IS EXPLODED UNDER TROOP LORRY

LONDON, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press).—A mine was exploded under a lorry loaded with Irish national troops at Bush field, hurling them a considerable distance, according to a despatch received today from the Exchange Telegraph's Nenagh correspondent. Irregulars then opened fire and one national was killed.

National reinforcements were rushed to the scene.

Baffin Land Party Is On Way Home

By ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. FREEPORT, Me., Aug. 26.—The Baffin land expedition in command of Donald B. MacMillan, which left Boston a year ago on the schooner Bowdoin, is on its way home, according to a radio message from the explorer received here today by his sister.

The message, sent by way of Gogo Island, near the Northeastern end of Newfoundland, said:

"On our way home. Fine trip all well."

China's Finance Chiefs Coming to U. S. PEKING, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press).—Chow Tzu-Chi, former premier, and Tung Kang, minister of finance, who recently resigned after closing the doors of his department and declaring the treasury empty, left Peking today for Shanghai en route to the United States. They expect to sail for America Monday, but the object of their mission has not been announced.

Harding Issues Strike Ultimatum; U. S. Mine Seizures et for Monday

CONGRESS TO TAKE ACTION TO COMBAT DUAL STRIKE CRISIS

Failure of Companies to Operate Properties Will Be Followed by Government Taking Full Control

PREPARE FEDERAL PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(By International News Service).—Congress today was called upon to declare a national emergency "equal to a state of war," as a result of the mine strike and impending coal famine in a bill introduced in the House by Representative Dickinson, Republican, of Iowa.

The bill would provide for federal control of the mining industry through a "mine labor board" of four members. The board would be authorized to settle the present strike, adjust wages, fix coal prices and regulate the entire coal industry.

By JAMES T. KOLBERT, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The anthracite mine strike must be settled or the government will take steps to seize and operate the pits Monday.

This is the presidential ultimatum, Senator Watson (Rep.) of Indiana declared today after a long conference with Harding at the White House.

The President believes a serious crisis impends unless operations are resumed immediately in the hard coal mines, Watson declared. The first step toward seizure will be made in the Senate, he declared, with presentation of a bill authorizing the President to assume full control of production.

PRESIDENT HOPEFUL FOR SETTLEMENT. Settlement may be arranged today, Watson said, adding that if an agreement was not found, the President was prepared to press immediately for legislation by Congress.

Seizure of railroads is not considered by the President to be as necessary as operation of the hard coal mines, Watson said. A final effort will be made to bring about peace in the hard coal fields. If this fails, Senator Cummins, after a conference with the President, said he would introduce a measure calling for federal operation of the mines.

Seizure of the mines is not contemplated until the managements have been given full opportunity to demonstrate their ability to maintain satisfactory service.

If the mines show signs of operating, another measure will be placed before Congress.

It is not the intention of the President to make a seizure of railroads, although the bill giving the President power to take over the lines may vest him with blanket authority to operate the entire system at one time, Cummins made it known.

First of all, the coal-carrying railroads must fail to function would be taken over under the plans, Cummins stated. After that, other roads showing signs of breaking down, would be taken over, he said.

Bridge at South End of Bay Advocated

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Plans for bridging the southern end of San Francisco bay were launched yesterday at a meeting held in the office of City Engineer M. M. O'Shaughnessy and called by Supervisor John McLean of San Mateo county and Supervisors J. Emmett Hayden and Richard J. Welch of San Francisco. The meeting took under advisement a State Highway Commission report dealing with the construction of a proposed bridge at Ravenswood Point.

FINISH FIGHT MENACES IN RAIL STRIKE

Abandonment of Peace Parley Is Followed by Re-alignment of Opposing Forces to Renew Battle

Leaders of Shopcrafts Are Confident; Plenty of Funds to Carry On Struggle to Bitter End, Declaration

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—With the peace effort launched by the big five brotherhoods definitely abandoned, rail executives and shopcrafts leaders today re-aligned their forces for a finish fight in which both sides predicted an early victory.

"We are going home to start the real fight, whether it lasts for three weeks or three months," declared W. F. Ryan, president of the Carmen's National Brotherhood, as he prepared to leave for Kansas City.

"Our organizations have plenty of funds to conduct a long fight, and our men are willing to make the sacrifices needed for a decisive victory," he concluded.

JEWELL ISSUES STATEMENT TO MEN.

E. M. Jewell, head of the strike organization of crafts, was equally positive of the outcome of the battle, which he asserted the railroads left as the only course for the unions to pursue. Before starting for Chicago to pick up the reins of strike leadership, where he dropped the matter when recent peace overtures began, he issued a statement to his men in which he said:

"We have gone to the full limit in the interest of peace. If we must fight, we will show that we know how. Now that the issue is again clearly defined, and every one of an early peace dissipated, the fight must be renewed with increased vigor and every man must do his full part to bring it to an early and successful conclusion."

The attitude of the brotherhood chiefs shows tireless efforts to promote a settlement, and every one of an early peace dissipated, the fight must be renewed with increased vigor and every man must do his full part to bring it to an early and successful conclusion."

Others of the big five leaders expressed great disappointment over their failure to end hostilities, but renewed assurances that the running trades would refrain from any sympathetic strike, having joined the majority which declined to resume discussions with the brotherhoods after last Wednesday's meeting of the association of railway executives, today were saying frankly, "I told you so."

The minority, representing 77 roads, with 45,000 miles of track and including such powerful systems as the Chicago & North-western; Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; Erie, and New York Central, today expressed regret at the sudden termination of efforts to compromise, but expressed no doubt as to the outcome.

"We will break the strike within a week," was their general prediction.

CHICAGO AND ALTON FREIGHT TIED UP

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 26.—All freight traffic on the Chicago & Alton railroad between here and Roodhouse, division terminal, was at a standstill today. Trainmen refused to work because of "unsatisfactory working conditions." Additional troops were sent to Roodhouse to prevent a repetition of Thursday night's bombings.

Three Die in Tampico In $2,500,000 Blaze

TAMPICO, Mexico, Aug. 26.—By International News Service. A fire wiped out a large part of Tampico today, doing damage estimated at about $2,500,000. Twenty-six buildings were destroyed. Three persons were killed and many injured. An entire block of business buildings was among the structures consumed.

The fire began in the back room of a store, but the cause is not known. A heavy insurance was carried on the buildings with French, American and British companies.

117 Part Time High Students Enrolled

RICHMOND, Aug. 26.—A total of 117 students are already enrolled for part time work in the Richmond Union High school. This marks a big increase over last year's enrollment, which was 93.

S. B. Wilson is principal, and the instructors are Mrs. Helen B. Sheiden and Mrs. May Ward. All boys and girls under 18 years of age and not attending regular school are required by law to take part-time work.

Astronomers See Unique Conjunction

Amateur Eastbay astronomers were given a thrill last night when a new moon and the clarity of the atmosphere combined to make a unique triple conjunction of the planets visible.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning the triple conjunction was made with Saturn at 7 o'clock last evening Venus made the conjunction, and from 8:15 on Jupiter lined up at the right of new moon, with Venus directly beneath.

DR. CABOT URGES CO-OPERATION OF HEALTH WORKERS

Eastern Physician Talks to Alameda County Center on Movement.

"No human being deserves any credit for a good work and when the health worker learns not to expect credit not to be so cheap or mean as to want credit boldly to stop the health worker from leading the world."

Dr. Richard Cabot of Boston, who is visiting the west as a delegate to the medical convention in San Francisco, used this thought as his main theme in an impromptu talk to the members of the Alameda County Health Center at a meeting in the Hotel Oakland yesterday noon.

The eastern physician who has been identified with the health movement for many years and was a pioneer in health center work urged a spirit of co-operation among the various departments operating under the main head and urged with equal vehemence the abolition of the desire for credit.

Dr. Cabot praised the plan of Dr. Alvin Powell, head of the local health center for the advancement of the work and outlined for the members the various sorts of hygiene and the methods found most salutary in arriving at the ideal.

Dr. Cabot said he stressed the personal equation and decried the attempt to arrive at health things through mechanical means such as the distribution of literature which he said invariably found its way into the waste basket and not into the mind of the patient.

The visitor praised the work accomplished at the Baby Hospital and the Oakland Health Center and recalled his visit of fifteen years ago when he learned of the work done at the University of California in health service which he has been talking about ever since.

Yesterday's meeting was presided over by Dr. Powell and was attended by about 200 persons interested in the health center movement.

TURKEY OFFERS BIG MARKET FOR U. S. MACHINERY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 26.—The vital need of machine power in Turkey, has been obvious and urgent as a result of the exhaustion of the available supply of animals in the country.

It was the opinion of American Consul-General G. E. Bayard, "Most of the draft animals have been used for cavalry and artillery purposes, and many of them to supply food for the soldiers," he continued, speaking to the representative of The Associated Press. "Consequently a demand is arising for the tractor and the plow. American tractors as well as other American-made farm machinery, possess a fine reputation in Turkey, and at present dominate the market. The Kahraman (German), Fat (Italian), and Renault (French) tractors are in the field, but they cannot compete successfully with American machines. The chief desiderata are price, efficiency and simplicity, and the American tractors have been found to fill these requirements."

Similar consideration apply to other agricultural machines and to tillage instruments for which the demand is growing in the Near East. These include reapers and binders, threshing machines, plows, harrows, cultivators and drills.

Russian Church Looters Caught

MOSCOW, Aug. 26.—Valuable jewels stripped from the historic icon of the Iberian Virgin by robbers, who broke into the famous Iberian church, and the gates of the Red Square on April 7, have been recovered by the Moscow police. Thirty members of a gang of robbers who looted many churches, chapels and convents before and during the government requisition of church treasures have been arrested, and loot valued at many millions of dollars has been recovered. The jewels from the Iberian icon alone were estimated to be worth nearly $3,000,000.

The first edition of the entire Hebrew bible was printed in 1485.

BOTTLE OF RUM, SAILORS' DEMAND IN VIRGIN ISLES

CHARLOTTE, Aemba, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, Aug. 26.—The Virgin Islands are now officially "dry" and the Volstead Act is in force, but Rear Admiral Kittell, the naval governor, by official publication, has announced that there are no funds provided by law for the enforcement of the act and that the police officers in the island will not wince at violations which will be punishable in the local courts.

The period of time granted for the disposal of liquor stocks on hand expired July 20. A commission is now in Washington

Spiritual Revival in Denmark-Finland

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—A spiritual awakening is abroad in Denmark and Finland which is reminiscent of the revival in England at the time of John Wesley, according to Bishop Anton Bast of Copenhagen, in a report received here by Committee of Conservation and Advance of the Methodist Episcopal church. Norway is also yielding to the religious spirit, he says, and business men are tithing themselves in the interest of the church.

urging modification of the law to permit the sale of liquors as ships stores in order to prevent foreign ships giving up St. Thomas as a port of call.

Embroideries Find Ready Sale in U. S.

Broussa, Asia Minor, Aug. 26.—(B. A. P. mail)—There has developed recently in the United States a large market for the native home-spun cloths and embroideries of the little village of Demirtash, near Broussa.

The Demirtash patterns are absolutely unique, nothing of the kind being produced in any other part of the world. According to Miss Constance Shelman, of Louisville, Ky., an American relief worker who has had a large part in stimulating the output of the native workshops, the patterns are of Macedonian origin, having been imported into the Broussa district about 200 years ago. The work at the present time provides a livelihood for 700 Armenians and 200 Greek refugees.

Captain Day Talks On Prison Conditions

Members of the Optimists Club listened to a talk on prison conditions yesterday at the weekly luncheon-meeting in the Hotel Oakland, where Captain William I. Day was the principal speaker. Captain Day has been identified with prison work for many years, and drew from his many experiences to punctuate his remarks on prison conditions.

French Open War On Trench Mice

GENEVA, Aug. 26.—The valley of Ajole, on the Swiss-French frontier, has been invaded by thousands of mice and the rodents are doing much damage. They are believed to have come from the trenches in Alsace. The village authorities have arranged drives by the people, offering half a cent for each dead animal. Poison gas is being used and the method is to inject this into the subterranean galleries built by the mice. It has proved most effective; 27,000 dead being the record for one day.

Lifeboats on Rails Aid in Launching

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Lifeboats arranged on deck on rails, so that they can be run to that part of the ship from which launching is possible, are features of the new steamship Jackenburg, claimed to be the last word in safety ships, which has just made her maiden trip between Folkestone and Funching.

In many cases of disaster at sea it has been found impossible to launch all of the boats on a ship because of the list. By this new device this difficulty is said to be overcome.

Two Betrothals Are Announced At Tea Today

The handsomely appointed tea given by Mrs. William R. L. Campbell and her daughters at their home in Claremont boulevard was the occasion of the announcements of the betrothals of both of the debutantes, the Misses Eleanor and Harriet Campbell.

As the guests arrived they were presented with announcements by Miss Eleanor and Harriet Campbell.

Miss Eleanor Gladys Campbell will become the bride of William Rochelle Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Blair. Miss Eleanor is a graduate of Miss Randolph's school in Berkeley and of the University of California with the class of '22. The bride-elect is a Delta Gamma and has traveled abroad extensively. Rochelle Blair is a University of California graduate and a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. He is in business in San Francisco.

Miss Harriet Campbell is the fiancée of Frederick Arthur Webster Jr. of Claremont. She is also a graduate of Miss Randolph's and made her formal debut in the past season. Following her graduation, Miss Campbell traveled in Europe. Webster is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Arthur Webster of Bay View, and is a University of California graduate. He is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He is now with the Standard Oil company.

Receiving with Mrs. Campbell were Mrs. James W. Blair, Mrs. Frederick Arthur Webster and Miss Rosalind Blair with a number of the sorority sisters of Miss Campbell.

College Avenue Methodist Episcopal church will be the scene of a smart wedding today when Miss Margaret Alice Thaxter will become the bride of McKinley Wheeler. Five o'clock was the hour set for the service read by Rev. J. H. N. Williams of San Francisco, assisted by Rev. Frank Baker. The double ring ceremony will be used. Several hundred were guests.

Baskets of orchid and pink asters and fernery have been placed about the chancel and the soft glow of candle light complete the beautiful picture.

Miss Thaxter will be married in a gown of duchesse satin trimmed with chiffon and pearl beading. The court train is of rare old Spanish lace, two centuries and a half old, and will be worn for the eighty-sixth time this afternoon.

The bridegroom will go to Miss Ruby Smith of San Francisco, following her marriage next month. The veil is as high as the back of the confetti and held in place with a band of pearls.

They were combined with tulle for the handsome shower bouquet.

Miss Marjorie Williams of San Francisco, who is to be maid of honor, will be in nile green tulle and silver lace and will carry a shower bouquet in pink and lavender.

The sextet of bridesmaids are to be gowned similarly in organdie and will carry old-fashioned nosegays. Miss Lois Barron will be in peach; Miss Blanche Rose in orchid; Miss Florence Thaxter in yellow; Miss Vivian Thaxter in rose; Miss Ruby Rold in blue, and Miss Avis Parks in anythet.

Little Betty Reynolds Bright, flower maiden, will be in a beautiful frock of yellow and carried a basket of rosebuds.

George Upton of Long Beach is to be best man and the ushers will be Franklin Barker, Raymond Fellers, Gavin McCullough, Al.

Junior Robinson will be ring-bearer.

Miss Thaxter attended the University of California for two years and later took up a course in nursing.

Wheeler is a graduate of the Agricultural department of the University and is horticultural inspector at Merced. The couple will make their home in Turlock. A reception will be held in the church parlors and later at the Frank Walter Thaxter home the bridal party and intimate friends are to be guests.

A smart affair of the week, at Hotel Tallac, Lake Tahoe, was the dinner and dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. Hart L. Weaver, in honor of their first anniversary.

The dining room was elaborately decorated for the occasion. A huge canopy of paper ribbons hung gracefully from the ceiling, and encircled twenty guests, who were seated around a large table, adorned in a profusion of ferns and wild owers.

Assisting the host and hostess in receiving their guests were Dr. and Mrs. Thomson Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lehe, Mrs. Dorothy Lann, D. D. Johnson, Miss Carolyn Hogan, H. Higgins, Miss Pearce, C. Conlin, Miss Danison, Mrs. Noack, Thomas Wilson, Mrs. E. Ornbaum Wiester, John Hampel.

RETURNS FROM THE ISLANDS. Mrs. J. H. Frask, Jr., who was formerly Miss Ruby Waldron, has returned from her home in Wailuku, Maui, T. H., on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Waldron of Eighth avenue. Mrs. Frask expects to return to her home in the islands the latter part of October.

MISS HOOVER TO BE BRIDE AT PALO ALTO. Santa Clara county generally is interested this week in the marriage scheduled for tomorrow at high noon of Miss Mildred Hoover, daughter of Professor and Mrs. Theodore Hoover, of Stanford University, to Cornelius Grinnell Willis, son of Professor and Mrs. Bailey Willis, also of Stanford. Miss Hoover is a niece of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover.

The wedding promises to be one of the distinguished social affairs of the season. The nuptials will be celebrated at the beautiful Hoover home, Casa del Oro, on Waddell creek, near Palo Alto, and will be attended by a large number of close friends of the young couple from Palo Alto and Stanford. Several local people have also been invited to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Henry Heilborn (Hazel Layman) and her two sons are here from their home in Sacramento. She will remain until October 21.

VETERAN MEET IS OVER IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—The twenty-fourth annual encampment and reunion of the United States Spanish War veterans came to a close here yesterday with installation of officers and adoption of three resolutions.

The latter gave commendation to the administration of the retiring commander-in-chief, Oscar E. Carlstrom; pledged loyalty to the new commander-in-chief, Antonio O. Entenza; and accorded formal recognition to the veterans' fun making forces, the Military Order of the Serpent.

THREE MINUTE by TAILIES AD SCHUSTER

JUST how much of sense Gerlie and I thought maybe—

"Tim," the girl interrupted, "you're the top of the milk all right, and I'm the Kitten who appreciates, but if you're trying to propose after handing me a raspberry for being too gabby you are going way beyond your station. That's what a girl gets for trying to be entertaining and agreeable."

"All the same," said Tim, "I'll call tomorrow morning to say goodbye."

IN the morning the two sat on the porch of the old building in which Gerlie's parents had housekeeping rooms. Street cars rattled by and within a block elevated trains droned past. Wagons bumped over the cobblestones and tracks and motor trucks snorted and backed.

It was not a setting for romance. Tim had his suitcase. In an hour he would have to leave the station. He looked at the girl who laughed and giggled and skipped from one trivial subject to another, and experienced despair. She was not a bit sorry he was going; she even seemed happy. With the criticism of the evening before in her mind, Gerlie was bent on punishing him. There would be no chance for a sad farewell, she decided, no opportunity for a proposal—at least until he came back. Talked too much, did she? Indeed!

While Gerlie talked Tim looked at his watch and sought the courage to stake all on a rude interruption. Suddenly the girl stopped and half raised her hand. It was as if something unusual had happened.

BOTH looked about uneasily as if seeking the cause of their strange unrest. Everything was quiet. There was no noise, no cars or trucks. A sudden and mysterious silence filled the world and with a she a more terrifying than an explosion. Tim moved as if to rise and Gerlie seized his hand.

"What is it, Tim?" she asked, her eyes wide with fear. "What do you suppose has happened?"

"I dunno," replied the lad and he found his arm around the girl. "Let's sit still and wait."

It was only two minutes but for Gerlie it seemed hours. Then the cars shrieked and the noises started and the city hummed at it had hummed before.

"Yes, Tim, dear," said a humble Gerlie, "I'll marry you and I'll try ever so hard not to talk you to death."

Watch MONTCLAIR Grow

Piedmont, California's Most Beautiful Residence District Today, Has Made Fortunes for Those Who Had Foresight. The Following Photographs Tell the Story

OAKLAND AVENUE TODAY

Piedmont has won fame in all the world—MONTCLAIR is a continuation of Piedmont, of the same contour and beauty—BUT is the achievement of the ever-forward trend of human development. It is California's most beautiful residential section of tomorrow.

Piedmont is the old idea of residential subdivision (40 and 50-foot lots)—Montclair is the new (half-acre estates). The old style narrow lot is conducive to a congestion of homes.

Our BROAD, SUNNY HALF ACRES are five times the size of a city lot. Just large enough for exclusiveness, yet small enough for neighborliness. Seven years ago Piedmont's 40 and 50-foot lots sold as low as $500—today you must pay as high as ten times that price for the same lots, and then it is only the remnants that are offered for sale.

See Montclair Sunday, Aug. 27, and Visualize the Future

Looking forward with Montclair—Today you can buy a magnificent Montclair estate as low as that $500 Piedmont 40-foot lot of 7 years ago and it will be five times as large.

Montclair is the closest-in high-class residential property on the market today; but 41 minutes from San Francisco and 21 minutes from 14th and Broadway (12 minutes by auto). A highly restricted residential property, limiting one dwelling, to cost not less than $3500, to each quarter acre, which assures a development of homes with spacious, beautiful grounds.

STOP—THINK—What will that broad, sunny Montclair estate be worth in 7 years—yes, two years? Your common sense will tell you that Montclair values will outstrip Piedmont in a short time.

Now stop and compute your profit upon the basis of a Montclair purchase today.

SHEEPMAN KILLS OLD BROWN BEAR AND THREE CUBS

Tom Walker of the Sierra Trails and Bays Raiders of His Flock.

LYON, Aug. 26.—Laying low four bears in a single day with his "rifle" is not a thing of the past for a hunter in California, according to a story sent in by Editor Harry Hammond of the Byron Times, who is on a vacation at Donner Lake and Tahoe. Hammond writes:

"Tom Walker is a name to be conjured with. To kill one bear is a record of which any hunter would be proud, but to bag four in one day borders on the incredible. 'At this is the score recorded Tuesday, August 22, near Soda Springs in the Sierra, when Tom Walker, well known sheepman, brought in the evidence of his marksmanship.

"For several weeks sheep were killed to such extent that the hands under Walker's ownership showed signs of depletion. Some nights as many as six were killed.

"Bear tracks told the reason. Paces followed until a lone bear in the almost impenetrable brush.

"Monday night three more sheep were killed. Walker determined to act.

"Armed and with a boy companion he followed bruiser tracks for several miles, coming suddenly upon a big brown bear and her two cubs. It was but the work of a moment to dispatch them. Then another bear with only one cub came out of the brush and showed fight. Walker had only two cartridges left and beat a safe retreat behind a big tree.

"The enraged mother came toward him and Walker fired. The shot was not fatal and bruised and beat a retreat, leaving a trail of blood. The last bullet was used to dispatch the cub. The wounded mother ceased and an effort is being made to locate her.

"Walker summoned help and the big bear and three cubs were dressed and brought to Soda Springs. The hide of the mother measured some seven feet.

"No trace has been found of male members of the bear families. Although it is closed season for bears, it is open season at all times when one's property is attacked, whether by coyotes or bears.

"Soda Springs is a little station a few miles west of Summit. It was not known brown bears or any other kind were in the vicinity. Bears are reported rather numerous, but the mountains here are rugged and steep and the underbrush is thick.

WITNESS SWEARS THREE ON TRIAL TOLD OF KILLING

Woman Relates Similar Narrative on Stand in Court at Stockton.

STOCKTON, Aug. 26.—In the joint trial yesterday of Santa Rosa and John Hotta, charged with the murder of Peter Secreto near this city on the night of June 2, Frank Carvallo testified that some hours after he saw the three drive away in an auto, Tropea and Tropp came to his bedroom window, awoke him, and Tropea told him to deny having seen them earlier that night if questioned.

On making further inquiry, he testified, he learned that Secreto had been killed. When he asked who had committed the act, he said, he was told "A couple of fellows. We don't know who they were."

Of a similar nature was the testimony of Mrs. Angelina Pizzo, who said she served Tropea, Tropp and Secreto with a small quantity of wine early that night, and that they left in an auto toward the spot where the body was found.

Tropea and Tropp returned that night and aroused the family from their slumbers. "Sam told us not to say anything, but that after they crossed the railroad tracks their automobile broke down and Peter Secreto was killed," she swore.

It is the theory of District Attorney Edward Van Vranken and Sheriff William Rieck that the murder was another phase of the vendetta that has manifested itself here among a small number of Calgarilians for years past.

Lettuce Packing Plant For Salinas Discussed

SALINAS, Aug. 26.—That Salinas is rapidly progressing and is coming straight ahead in the industrial world is more apparent every day. The latest new industry that is talked of being established in this locality is a lettuce packing plant.

The Salinas valley produces some of the finest lettuce in the state, and F. F. Berger of the California Vegetable Union is here discussing with local business men the possible location of a plant.

The desire for such a plant has been discussed and desired for some little time, but it now bids fair to be a reality.

The lettuce would be sent in from Castville, Blanco and various points throughout the valley and packed for eastern shipment, to find its way to the larger cities of the east. In that way the Salinas valley would become known.

Husband Accused of Failure to Provide

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Charging that her husband failed to provide for her one year ago, Mary Smith, undernourished, said he called her vile names and told her he did not love her. Mary L. Smith of Richmond today filed suit for divorce against Adam H. Smith, 33, who asks the court to award her $75 monthly during the pendency of the suit and that she be allowed to resume her maiden name of Mary Smith. The couple married in Texas in 1920.

Farm Center Places Articles On File

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Articles of incorporation of the Lone Tree Farm Center Club House were filed today with County Clerk J. H. Wells. The corporation is a non-profit one and organized for the purpose of promoting social, fraternal and farm work. The directors are Leonard Dainty, William Barr, Charlotte E. Lynch and Berta Hammond of Brentwood and Joe Prevett, Fred Heidorn and Florine McFarlan of Antioch.

Stones Shied at Auto; 30 Days Is Result

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Daniel Landrigan of Oleum was brought to the county jail to serve a sentence of 30 days on a charge of disturbing the peace. According to Constable J. E. Fox, Landrigan was arrested at Oleum Thursday night after he had thrown stones at passing automobiles. He was sentenced by Justice Ray Standish of Crockett.

Injuries Suffered by Shell Oil Employees

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Manuel Trebino, Shell Company employee, is at his home with his right leg fractured as the result of an accident at the Shell plant. Trebino accidentally stepped between two pipes and the lurch of his body with his foot caught fractured his leg.

Henry Norjick, also a Shell company worker, is also at his home with a crushed foot as the result of a casting falling upon it.

Bootleg Liquor Seized in San Juan, Mission Town

HOLLISTER, Aug. 26.—Federal prohibition officers yesterday raided two bootlegging joints in the historic mission town of San Juan, and two in Tres Pinos.

A week ago a Federal raid party visited a few families above Tres Pinos and seized the winery of John and Clemente Calleri because the vats were "13,000 gallons short," the officers asserting that no two men could consume that much wine themselves in a few months. Yesterday a San Francisco ying squad scoured the county disguised as a motorbike party. The roads were dusty, the "party" stopping at the Redwood Lodge and the Plaza Hotel, San Juan, to wash the dust out of their throats.

Proprietors Buchta and Moore, and Fred Beck were arrested for providing the dust remover liquid.

In Tres Pinos, a few miles south of Hollister, the hotel run by Kilfis Ware and a lunch counter run by "Dad" Dadd were also visited by the officers, and now both proprietors are busy explaining why strong drink is still served with meals to weary and dusty wayfarers.

This visit of the prohibition agents makes the seventh raid in San Benito county within the last thirty days.

All defendants are now out on heavy bail after preliminary hearing before a United States commissioner in San Francisco.

News Notes of Vallejo And U. S. Navy Yard

VALLEJO, Aug. 26.—Albert Costello has left for Napa, where he will entertain at the Napa Fair. Many Vallejoites attended the fair at Napa yesterday and today, and all accounts it is one of the best festivals of its kind held in the upper valley in many years.

General Manager C. E. Brown of the San Francisco Napa and Calistoga Electric Railroad Company visited here yesterday from Napa. The railroad official says he is preparing to confer with the city officials and endeavor to have a small number removed from the outskirts of town.

L. E. Gibson, business manager of the Times-Herald, and Miss Maybelle Freeman were married at Sunnyvale on Thursday by the Rev. J. T. C. Smith. The newlyweds will reside here.

Vallejo Post, No. 104, American Legion, will be represented at the San Jose Encampment by R. F. O'Hara, E. Wicheles, Miss Ruth Lee, F. R. Bennett, F. M. Levee and J. E. Bonwell.

Superintendent Charles Hatch of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company visited here yesterday. Hatch has supervision over the operation of the ferryboats on San Francisco bay and tributaries.

The funeral of Raymond J. Titts was held this afternoon from Golden State hall and was attended by many friends and acquaintances.

SWEDISH TRADE FIGURES EQUAL PRE-WAR DAYS

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 26.—That Sweden has definitely survived the post-war crisis, and is one of the first nations in Europe to show a natural and consistent recovery, appears from the monthly report on the foreign trade of this country during June, which has just been issued.

The export of timber and sawwood, a staple commodity, has grown so rapidly that the volume is now 97 per cent of the peace-time figures. At the end of June the timber sales were close to 600,000 standards, which is considerably more than half of the normal yearly output. The export of matches is 95 per cent of the pre-war figures.

Of June the timber sales were close to 600,000 standards, which is considerably more than half of the normal yearly output. The export of matches is 95 per cent of the pre-war figures.

As regards wood pulp and paper, which America buys from Sweden in large quantities, the figures for the month exceed the 1918 figures for the corresponding month by 18 to 72 per cent.

Incidentally it is reported that one reason why the quotations on sulphite pulp are high is the increased demand from the United States for the manufacture of artificial silk. News print, which is shipped in great volume to America, shows an export figure 72 per cent above that of 1918.

In the line of manufactured goods, which is shipped in great volume to America, shows an export figure 72 per cent above that of 1918.

Of electrical machines and apparatus, ball bearings, and telephones is nearly three times that of June, 1918. Cream separators and motors have risen to 59 per cent of the pre-war figure.

ARTICLES FILED FOR NEW FERRY ON UPPER RIVER

Van Sickle Island Terminal Contemplated in Sacramento Crossing Plan.

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Realization of the plans of Pittsburg and Solano county business men to have a ferry across the upper Sacramento river in operation before April is one step nearer today with the filing of articles of incorporation of the "Pittsburg-Sacramento Auto Ferry" and a definite outline of the route to be followed.

With establishment of a terminal on Van Sickle Island determined upon, if permission can be secured to use the railroad bridge of the San Francisco-Sacramento Railroad across Montezuma slough.

Officials of the railroad to place their plans before them. The directors are Aven J. Hanford and Oscar Klatt, both officials of the Rodeo Valley Ferry and Golden Gate Ferry Company; Otto Lowder and W. J. Buchanan of Pittsburg; Peter Suen of San Francisco; Charles G. Cline of Benicia and W. A. Gentry of Berkeley.

Solano and Pittsburg businessmen initiated the ferry project to develop both districts. The ferry would provide a short route between the bay cities and Sacramento.

Under the articles of incorporation on file here, the company has a capitalization of $250,000 with seven directors. The directors are Aven J. Hanford and Oscar Klatt, both officials of the Rodeo Valley Ferry and Golden Gate Ferry Company; Otto Lowder and W. J. Buchanan of Pittsburg; Peter Suen of San Francisco; Charles G. Cline of Benicia and W. A. Gentry of Berkeley.

The Hotel Admiral promoters are to meet with S. M. Snyder Thursday evening at the Chamber of Commerce, when it is expected that steps will be taken to arrange for the early erection of the new hotel at Sonoma and Virginia streets.

Captain L. M. Cox, public works officer at the navy yard, has left Fallen Leaf Lodge at Lake Tahoe, and will resume his duties at the station on September 1.

Colonel A. W. Swaim, father of Mrs. M. E. Reid, of Mare Island, died on Thursday at Bermuda, where he was United States consul.

TURKEY TO RENT GREAT PALACES

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 26.—The Sublime Porte is considering seriously the note from the Allied High Commissioner regarding the reduction of government employees, and it is expected that action will be taken which will make good the monthly deficit of 500,000 Turkish pounds in the wages to government servants.

In addition the Sublime Porte has decided to abolish the legations and Consulates in various neutral countries. Orders have already been issued to that effect.

Down of legations and consulates in Madrid, Bern, The Hague and Stockholm. Several government buildings of secondary importance will be evacuated and rented to private concerns. Some palaces on the Bosphorus will be rented to millionaires.

The economy measures provide also for the reductions in the salaries of schoolmasters, hospital nurses and office boys; the abolition of superfluous government offices and the retirement of a large number of army and navy officers.

The Finance Ministry has decided to withdraw worn paper money notes from circulation. The government, together with delegates of the Ottoman Public Debt, is devising a plan to this end.

Sick Man Begs Stimulant, Then Seizes Evidence

ALVARADO, Aug. 26.—Two men walked into the Alvarado hotel recently, and upon the plea of one of them that he was sick, induced Joe Marlot, proprietor, to mix him a stimulating drink. Marlot obliged, and when he returned with the drink the sick man rushed to the room that Marlot had just been in and secured the rest of a man's bottle of liquor, which, according to Marlot, the man's companion drank the glass of liquor that had been brought in. They men then announced themselves as prohibition officers and left with the evidence.

TINY HAWAIIAN KINGDOM WHICH DIED REOPENED

HONOLULU, T. H., July 21.—(By the Associated Press, by mail.) The kingdom that "died" but never was con sidered; the kingdom with the smallest standing army on record, three men; the kingdom of Nualolo, behind its walls of mountain and surf in an almost forgotten corner of the island of Kauai, is being "rediscovered."

This ancient domain, the only part of Hawaii which King Kamehameha the Great could not bring under his scepter when he routed all other rivals in battle and united the islands, has been reopened. A rope ladder once again dangles from the Nualolo cliffs, the identical place, fastened through the same holes cut in the rocks by the Hawaiian warriors of long ago.

The kingdom of Nualolo is on the northwest coast of the island of Kauai, off the Hawaiian group, in the heart of a wonderful precipice section which rises abruptly from the sea in almost perpendicular cliffs from 3500 to more than 4000 feet in height. It comprises nine valleys, three large and six small, each ending at the sea in a precipice.

There are only three practicable ways of getting into this idyllic domain. One is by a "manana" trail upward from the ocean front. A second is by another and steeper trail over the mountains from the land side and the third and easiest, is by rope ladder from Nualolo beach and thence to a narrow winding path, cut out of the rock, where a misstep means a fall to death. The latter route recently has been reopened by the placing of a new rope ladder. Its past decessors hung many years ago.

When Nualolo maintained its independence in the face of the advances of the great Kamehameha, before the days of high explosives and airplanes, three men only were needed to keep its gates. An old Hawaiian, named Ku, has given the Nualolo people an effective method of defense.

One guard sat at the top of the Honopu beach precipice with a pile of rocks at his side. Only one enemy at a time could climb the trail and in case of attack the guard dropped a stone on the head of each enemy as he appeared from below, or smashed his fingers with a rock as they clutched the overhanging ledge.

"At Nualolo, where the trail is up a ladder, one guard was stationed at the top of the ladder with a stone axe. As each hostile head appeared the guard would throw a stone from the axle into play. On the axle, the trail from above on the land side, a guard with a pole waited within a niche in the cliff out of sight of the approaching enemy. When the latter came

HOUSEWIVES GET SECOND GAS CUT WITHIN A MONTH

Total Reduction Effected in Contra Costa County is 17 Cents For Year.

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Reduction in the price of crude oil late yesterday brought another slash of 7 cents in the rates of the Contra Costa Gas Company and happiness to housewives in Martinez, Crockett, Concord, Pittsburg, Antioch and surrounding territory.

The cut ordered yesterday is the second to be made within thirty days by the railroad board. On August 1 the commission announced a cut of 8 cents per 1000 cubic feet and at the same time announced that further reduction in the price of crude oil would bring a corresponding slash in gas rates.

In December the commission cut the rate of the local company 2 cents, making a reduction of 17 cents in the price of gas in the last nine months.

Within reach along the narrow pathway the guard would give him a shove with the pole and a 2000 foot drop did the rest."

CITY OF ALAMEDA LAUNCHES FIVE NEW LIFEBOATS

Craft Placed at Bridges As Step to Help Prevent Drownings.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 26.—The city of Alameda is now equipped with five lifeboats which were towed to their places at the various bridges along the estuary with special ceremonies.

Two of the boats are the gift of E. K. Taylor, former mayor of Alameda, to the city and the other three were purchased by the city council in an effort to curb the loss of life along the waterfront.

The boats were towed by the tug Phoenix to their respective places while the donor and city officials joined with the populace in the first step of the rescue move.

Taylor presented the bills of sale on the two boats to Mayor Frank Otis of Alameda and expressed the hope that the boats would be responsible for lowering the death rate caused by drownings on the waterfront.

Following the brief address a demonstration of life saving was participated in by two Alameda sea scouts assisted by members of the police department in one of the newly acquired boats.

The city has equipped the boats with all necessary life saving equipment and has the boats will be furnished the members of the police department and the bridge tenders on the five bridges where the boats are moored.

The boats and equipment will be taken care of by the Sea Scouts and Boy Scouts of the city.

Following the brief address a demonstration of life saving was participated in by two Alameda sea scouts assisted by members of the police department in one of the newly acquired boats.

The city has equipped the boats with all necessary life saving equipment and has the boats will be furnished the members of the police department and the bridge tenders on the five bridges where the boats are moored.

SCOTS TO HOLD FETE AT HAYWARD

Oakland Pyramid No. 2, Ancient Egyptian Order of Scots, will hold its summer ceremony in Hayward on September 16.

The Native Sons armory has been procured for the event and a local committee, headed by State Assemblyman R. Christman, is busy building parade floats, preparing army decorations and making entertainment arrangements.

The ceremonial candidates from Centerville, Pleasanton, Hayward, Livermore, San Leandro and other cities in the southern part of Alameda county will be initiated into the mysteries of Scotry.

Committees consisting of leading Oaklanders are holding weekly meetings in the Oakland Scot temple on Twelfth street, in preparation for this ceremonial.

William L. Day, toparch of the Oakland Pyramid of Scots, has appointed the committees.

Many Master Masons have already filed their petitions for membership in Oakland Pyramid of Scots.

Visitors from throughout California will attend. Music for the street pageant and ritualistic work will be furnished by Oakland's Scot band.

The Libyan Guard team will be a feature of the pageant.

Special street cars will leave Twelfth and Washington streets, Oakland, at 5 p. m. Autos will leave the Oakland Scot temple at the same time.

The pageant will leave the Native Sons armory at 6 p. m. The ceremonial will begin at 7:30 p. m. Ten teams, forming a candidate campaign committee, are working.

Under the direction of Harry Pulsifer, Dr. L. Dietz, Ben Jones and John Peberling. All petitions for membership must be lodged on at the regular business session of Oakland Pyramid on Wednesday evening, September 13.

Elmer E. Creed Is Sued For Divorce

Charging her husband, Elmer E. Creed, San Francisco sales representative of an eastern company, with improper relations with other women, Mrs. Leora Creed filed suit for divorce with the county clerk's office today.

In the complaint, Mrs. Creed states that she and her husband were married at Louisville, Kentucky, in February, 1922.

The plaintiff alleges that such improper relations were frequent occurrences and cites a specific case that occurred in Los Angeles on August 23 of this year.

The plaintiff declares that her husband has an income of not less than $5000 a year and petitions the court to award her $250 a month alimony. She also asks for the community property and $500 attorney fees.

RAY BRIDGE DISCUSSED.
IRVINGTON, Aug. 26.—The Bridge Bay Association held a regular monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms here last night. The latest developments on the bridge project were taken up and discussed.

KLANSMEN FREED IN TRIAL FOR RAID ON BOOTLEGGERS

Jury Votes to Acquit 35 After Judge Rules on Legality of Arrests Made.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—Thirty-five members of the Ku Klux Klan were free men today, felony charges growing out of the Ingewood raid of April 22, last, having acquitted them last night after a little more than three hours of actual deliberation, although it had been out five hours and ten minutes.

Each of the defendants had been indicted on two counts of kidnapping, two of false imprisonment and one of assault with a deadly weapon, and all had been under a total bond of $145,000, which was immediately exonerated by Judge Frederick W. Houser.

They were accused of having raided the home and bonded winery of Fidel and Matias El-Buyer, at Ingewood, a suburb, seized the men and carried them to two different police stations as alleged bootleggers and turned them loose after officials of both stations had refused to lock them up.

In the raid, M. B. Mosher, Ingewood constable, was killed, and his son, Walter E. Mosher, a deputy constable, and Leonard Ruegg, a deputy sheriff, all alleged members of the raiders and the latter two defendants in the trial, were wounded.

According to evidence brought out at the inquest over Constable Mosher's body and at the trial, the raid was planned at a meeting of the Ku Klux Klan in Ingewood.

Judge Houser instructed the jury to the effect that if liquor had been illegally sold and arrests had been made in a lawful manner, the defendants must be found not guilty. In referring to Constable M. B. Mosher, one of the raiders, who was shot and killed, Judge Houser instructed that a constable has a right to deputize any one he wished to assist him in making an arrest, and that he had no right to deputize men of the Ku Klux Klan as any other organization.

Originally there were 37 defendants, but a mistrial was declared in the case of Nathan A. Baker, alleged leader and former klan leader, who became ill in court, and the case against another was dismissed because of lack of evidence.

The defendants included W. S. Coburn, former grand guild of the Klan's "Pacific Domain," and G. W. Price, klan klan for California.

After the verdict had been returned and a demonstration of defendants and their friends had ended, Price issued a statement declaring the pleasure of himself and the other defendants in their acquittal, adding:

"Our organization will continue to be law-abiding as before."

Airedale Dies Shielding Man From Mad Dog

HAYWARD, Aug. 26.—Joan of Arc, a blooded Airedale dog belonging to Frank Belvel, local business man, twice a heroine, is dead today following her fight with a rabid dog. Joan of Arc died as the result of her efforts to protect the sleeping crew of a threshing machine from the attacks of the mad dog.

In 1921 Joan saved Robert, the son of Belvel, from the attack of a rattlesnake. Joan's first heroism was enacted on the Bolina ranch, in Crow canyon. Robert, 14 years of age, was walking with Joan over the hills of the Bolina range when he encountered the snake. Joan, leaping before the crawling boy and protecting him from the fangs of the snake, snapped, and won.

On the same ranch Joan, awakened in the night, rushed from the ranch house to the fields where the threshing crew was sleeping in time to cut off the approach of a mad dog. She was easily victor, and upon examination no scar was apparent. For several days Joan showed no indication of injury, but early this week developed signs of hydrophobia. She died yesterday, and upon examination the California board of health pronounced the case an undeveloped case of hydrophobia.

Baptists to Boost Their Membership

Twenty-third Avenue Church Plans Intensive Drive For Two Months

Plans are taking shape at the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist church for two months of an intensive membership campaign during October and November. For the drive the slogan "Boost Membership in Attendance" has been adopted. The campaign will be carried on under the direction of the pastor, Rev. J. A. Garst, and a committee composed of the following: T. S. Watson, Anna Stewart, Dore Bryan, Mrs. H. D. Jackson, Natalie Frank, M. S. Lusk, Mrs. Nannie Montgomery, T. B. Holmes, Mrs. M. S. Lusk, L. R. Case, Mrs. S. C. Roberts, H. D. Jackson, Mrs. P. M. Davidson, J. H. Wilson, Mrs. D. M. Moore, James Levell. This committee will have a meeting in the church Tuesday at 8 p. m.

The object of the campaign is outlined by Rev. Garst, to secure the intelligent and enthusiastic attendance of every member of the church at all meetings of the church and its auxiliaries, by bringing each member to an intelligent understanding of the nature of church activities and the individual's relation to them. Pastoral letters and announcements and special advertisements will precede the eight Sundays, which will be known as "Home-coming Day," "Sunday School Day," "Boys and Girls Day," "B. Y. P. U. Day," "Church Day," "Men's Day," "Women's Day," "Family Day."

On each Sunday morning the pastor will preach an appropriate sermon and the evening service will be a special program in charge of the representatives of one department of church activity.

Careful records of attendance will be kept and personal letters, letters and phone calls will be used to help obtain attendance.

Rev. Garst with his family has returned from a vacation in Southern California, and now will begin a series of educational sessions in preparation for the October drive. Tomorrow his subjects will be: "His Fame," and "A Little Bird Told Me."

Activities of Eastbay Churches

The Observer

By Frank B. Schumann

Don'ts for Young Ministers.
Dr. J. B. Taylor in a recent article in the Watchman Examiner, gives a few "don'ts" for young ministers, among which are:
Don't live beyond your income.
Don't be a stingy person.
Don't preach your doubts.
Don't preach so much against things as for principles.
Don't be tempted on any occasion not to preach your best.
Don't be looking for a larger field.
Don't flirt with other churches or threaten your own church.
Don't be a pessimist.
Don't deal in off color stories.
Don't lose your temper in public.
Don't overlook the Bible when looking for texts.
Don't be jealous of your fellow ministers.
Don't scold and don't deal in personalities.
Don't be professional, artificial or sentimental.
Don't belittle little things.
Don't be lazy.
Don't neglect the sick and sorrowing.
Don't betray a confidence.
Don't fail to keep your appointments.
Don't allow any one to dictate your message.
Don't fail to pray.

MORAVIAN RENEWAL
The Continent in a recent issue on the Moravian renewal says:
"The Moravians this year are celebrating in this country and in Europe a highly significant bi-centennial. They trace their origin back to the reformation of John Huss in Bohemia five hundred years ago. But persecution brought their brethren almost to extinction, and what the Moravian congregations are now commemorating is the remarkable rebirth granted to the denomination just two centuries since. In 1722 a company of less than 100 Hussites, despairing of maintaining the succession of their faith longer in their native land, fled to Saxony and were welcomed to a settlement at Herrnhut, on the estate of a rich young Protestant nobleman, Count Zinzendorf. Soon the count himself joined the congregation of his lowly tenants and not unnaturally became in a short time their leader. Missionary spirit grew in fervor among them as their revived spiritual life gave them new courage, and ten years later they embarked on that marvelous world-wide missionary enterprise which marks the beginning of the modern era of foreign missions."

Control of Evangelists Urged.
The Protestant Union assure us that a definite control over its evangelists, whose mistakes often take ministers' years of labor to undo, the Rev. Dr. Frederic C. Spurr of London declared in an address to the ministers of the general conference of Christian Workers yesterday in Russell Sage Chapel. Dr. Spurr said that he was not opposed to evangelists and that he believes the church needs more of the right type of evangelist—Christian Science Mission.

Y. M. C. A. Arranging Fall Plans

Bi-Weekly Lunches Are to Be Held by Membership Committee.

With the vacation period drawing to a close, Oakland Y. M. C. A. has finished plans for the fall period. The membership department, under C. E. Mason, secretary, has arranged for bi-weekly lunches on Mondays. Carlos G. White is chairman of the committee which is rounding up new members and those who have allowed their membership to lapse through oversight or neglect.

"Bud" Kearns, head of the "Y" physical department, is putting an intensive campaign of athletics after September 1. He has arranged, in connection with his assistants Glen Williams and Shirley Snow, to put on the athletic features for an industrial festival at Mosswood Park, and to help in the details of the annual Lake Merritt Marathon race, in addition to the regular program of the association.

The calendar of activities now being developed by the various members of the Oakland "Y" under the direction of William Gillanders, general secretary, and A. G. Cushman, executive secretary, follows:

August 23—Open house to which all the young men and boys of the association and their comrades are invited and which will be under the direction of Fred R. Abbott, Boys' Work Director.

September 3 to 10—Boys' Week.

"RELIGIOUS FANATICISM VS. LIBERAL RELIGION"

Pastor Chooses Sermon Subject From Road Sign

A WARNING on one of the highways of the Northwest suggested the subject for a sermon tomorrow night to Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, pastor of the First Christian church. It reads: "Caution, You May Meet a Fool," and this is the theme he has announced. The evening service begins at 8 o'clock.

"Of What Value Is My Religion?" will be the morning sermon topic. The church quartet will furnish special music at both services.

HUGHES TO BRAZIL

Commissioned with a special rank of ambassador for this particular occasion, Secretary Hughes has left for Brazil to return the call Dom Pedro II. made to Philadelphia and an earlier Centennial in 1876. At Rio de Janeiro Brazil's Centennial Exposition will open on September 7 with representatives of almost every country in the world present.

When Dom Pedro came to the United States he was the only head of a foreign government to take part in the celebration. The United States was the first nation to recognize the sovereignty of Brazil as a free and independent country after she had thrown off the yoke of Portugal. In consequence we have been first in the friendship of a nation which is without a political enemy.

The Brazilian exposition bids fair to be a notable show. It was originally planned that it should close on November 30 but the date had been extended until March 31 of next year and may be set back again so that the fair's duration will be a full year. All the important nations of the world and many of the unimportant ones are to take part. The show is intended primarily to exhibit the resources of Brazil to the world. Displays will be housed in thirty-five buildings taken over for the purpose and remodeled at a large cost. Buildings of foreign nations will add millions to the expenditures.
A number of important world conferences and conventions are to be held during the exposition and the greatest art collections ever shown in South America will be on display.

Secretary Hughes is on his way to represent this country officially at the opening. For a century Brazil has looked upon the United States as her best friend and it is fitting this nation should give proper recognition to the Centennial Exposition.

A PARK FOR THE ASKING

The slogan "Save the Sequoias" and the arguments favoring the "Yes" vote on the park proposal Tuesday have been to the point. What we wish to do, of course, is save for all time a bountiful gift left on our very doorstep. And yet, magnificent and desirable as the trees are, they are not all that will be gained for the community with the establishment of a park on and around Redwood Peak.

Oakland is growing faster than all but one or two cities in the country. The homes of the Eastbay are climbing the slopes of the Contra Costa hills and, in places, have crossed the crest and are to be found in the valleys beyond.
Fifty years will see miraculous changes. The city will have made the most of its harbor; it will be the leading industrial center of the Pacific Coast. It will be a big place doing big things and will need large playgrounds.

Fifteen hundred acres of unsurpassed park lands are Oakland's for the accepting. They may be made into one of the show places of the United States, a great and enduring asset to the community. Their wonders may be shared by the whole community or by those individuals who may purchase the wooded areas for home-sites. It is up to the voters whether or not they wish to add a Mountain Park to the city's attractions and thus aid materially in preparing Oakland to meet its undoubted and glorious destiny.

CHILDREN GIVEN CHANCE

A new world is being opened for the children of Porto Rico. After years of neglect during which the death rate was unusually high and no one, apparently, noticed the lack of playgrounds and the numbers of underfed boys and girls in the schools, there has come a sudden and glorious change.

This year the first summer outing camp ever seen in Porto Rico was opened. Recreation grounds were provided at the school and, for the first time, there was made guaranty that the pupils be properly fed. The results are said to be astounding.

The number of children in Porto Rico is very large. The poor man's family numbers from eight to twenty. Everywhere one sees them, thin mites who start off to school with no more breakfast than a cup of coffee. At noon, because they have known there would be no lunch, many have not returned.

The Department of Education and the Junior Red Cross some time ago asked the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor to start child welfare work in Porto Rico. The Women's Civic Club of the island is co-operating. Summer camps have been opened, playgrounds laid out and in one short year a deplorable spectacle, that of undernourished children, has been removed.

FINANCE AND FEATHERS

The new Poland which has come out of the world war with 28,000,000 inhabitants is making a brave effort for financial rehabilitation regardless of what the other nations of Europe may do. The Minister of Finance has announced his country will make no restrictions against foreign currency accounts carried in Polish banks and will guarantee freedom of action to foreign investors.

The problems of Poland have been accentuated by the fall of the mark and the difficulties of taxation. With the enacting of new tax laws there comes a new currency depreciation and a sort of pursuit race is started. In spite of this the country finds its deficits decreasing and the Eastern Provinces which were ravaged by war are bearing heavy crops. Not until the situation is well in hand will any foreign loan be asked.

It is a far step from finance to feathers but this same Poland, right now, is attracting the attention of the world by exporting a million geese in three months. A shortage of refrigerator cars has meant the geese have been shipped out live, dressed in other countries and sent on their way. That is why the country is seeking to raise money to get more cars.

Despite debts and losses and the struggles with taxation problems of enormous proportions Poland is making an astonishing headway.

In the account of the arrest of an automobile driver on a charge of running over a pedestrian and not stopping to render assistance a detail is that witnesses testified to having seen him stop his machine and lift the injured pedestrian from the pavement to the sidewalk, and then drive off. That seems to be adding to the offense. The law doesn't presume the consequences to be necessarily serious, but would have the aggressor ascertain and then do the humane thing. This one ascertained the injuries to have been serious, and then drove off without extending or summoning further aid. An important feature of the story is that after having been arrested the driver was given his freedom on $50 bail, as though it wasn't much matter, anyhow. Such disposition of such cases is one cause of so many such accidents. Injuries inflicted with automobiles seem to be regarded by magistrates as of very inferior consequence.

There is something anomalous in the official antagonism of the various States and communities to pugilistic exhibitions and the unofficial desire to have them. The former is exemplified in the successful opposition of the Governor of Indiana to the proposed Dempsey-Brennan match, and the latter in the unofficial clamor that it be permitted to go on.
The divergence of the citizen in his official capacity from his attitude in his private capacity might engage the attention of the psychologist. Every State has laws against pugilism and the Federal government has done something in that line, and yet no form of sport brings out such big and profitable attendance as even the denatured exhibitions that occasionally get across. The attitude seems to be that the prizefight because of its degrading tendency cannot be officially countenanced, while privately it proves to be the most appealing show going.

It is worthy a passing notice that, to quote from statistics, 130 died from the effects of drinking wood alcohol during the first six months of the year 1922, and that 22 others were blinded by the same indulgence. The liquid was not partaken of through inadver-tence, but from an urge to imbibe something that produced a kick. It may be that slight sympathy will be expended upon these victims of their own craving, but a thought may be devoted to the class of beings who make a business of pandering to this crave, and no doubt in many instances make representations which throw those with the reckless thirst off their guard as to the danger that lurks. Such beings are so entirely inadmirable that the agency so often employed by them in the rare instances when they are come up with by the law seems unnecessarily tender, indeed.

It is considerably interesting that a man has arrived in California with a project to harness the waters of the historic Jordan.
So many references to Jordan and its "stormy banks" in sacred writ and in hymns that all Christendom are familiar with make this very modern proposal to tamper with the sacred flow appear almost irreverent. Certainly it would have been difficult for the ancient scribes to produce that effect commanding reverence for the venerable stream had it been foreseen that it would be profaned with dams and embanked with generating plants along its course. It will be difficult for the world-ling of the present day to envision the Jordan as a water way notable for generating electric power instead of being the setting for so much of sacred history.

The Campanile Chimes.
What's all this fuss and pow-wow
About the Berkeley bells?
Because at 6 and 12 and 6
The air with music swells.

My hat is off—and in the ring,
My sleeves are rolled up high.
For those who howl about the bells,
And let their jazz go by.

Oh, the moan and groan of the saxophone!
Their cow-bell and the uke;
It penetrates your kitchen wall
And every sylvan nook.

At any hour—at any time—
You hear them moan and toot.
They call it "music," save the mark!
But I don't give a hoot.

I'd rather hear the chiming bells,
And they're others just like me.
So here's to the chiming in their tower tall—
In the grounds of the old U. C.!

—M. ELVEY.

Bards of the Berkeley Bells.
It should be remembered we invited these poems in defense of the Campanile chimes and the verse of Kay denoting them as responsible. From our perch on the Berkeley slope we hear these chimes each day. We are neither too near nor too far, and the music of the bells as it hits from the valley and rolls up the hills falls sweetly upon our uncuttivated ear. We would miss the Campanile chimes were they hushed. With our invitation to poetic expression the bards of both sides are welcome. At any moment, however, the whole subject may be dropped. We have in mind what happened when the columns of the press were thrown open to Berkeley for opinions concerning roosters.

When I used to live in Berkeley
About three years ago,
I often wondered where came such sweet sounds

Of chimes; oh, how I loved them so.

I don't know if they were the Campanile.

I only know I miss them now while

I live in Alameda, where I can't hear them ring.

Only the city hall clock strikes the hour, ding, dong, ding

'Tis the nearest sound of music
I hear, as the busy hours pass.

I certainly miss the Berkeley chimes;

Have you found a champion of the bells at last?

—MRS. L. BOROSKY.

Short Cut to Fame.
Still, it may be said of Mr. Bryan he is able to get into the news by doing no more than cutting his hair.

"The Tramp."
I am a tramp, I like to camp.
Beneath a shady tree;
They call me "bo," and tho' it's so,
It's good enough for me

I like to lay, where breezes play.
It makes me know I'm free;
A shady nook, beside a brook,
Is life and home to me.

You keep your booze; I'll take a snootz.

The KICK'S the same to me—
You drink your toast, I'll go and boast.

Of all I know—See?

I laugh and sing, in fall or spring;
I've never had a "sum";
But just the same, I've made a name,

For me and that's a—Bum.
—BLACK SHEEP.

Might we call attention it is only in the Almanac that "while" has been rhymed with "Campanile."

NOTES and COMMENT

Washington Star: "Among those paying tribute to the great talents and public services of the late Lord Northcliffe is Gen. Leonard Wood.
On his recent world journey the Englishman visited the Philippines and made an inspection of the American work there. He was afforded, of course, every facility for informing himself. He was much and most favorably impressed with all he saw. He had not come without knowledge of the American record in the archipelago."

Boston Transcript: "So now another chapter of the Shame of Illinois is published. We are told at last why nothing has yet been done to bring to justice the perpetrators of the most wanton, brutal and ominous tragedy in the history of American crime. The reason is simple and potent. No money. That is all. Illinois is one of the two or three richest States in the Union. It has untold millions to spend freely for every other conceivable purpose under the sun. But for the maintenance of law and order, for the vindication of the sanctity of human life, it has nothing."

Chicago News: "Now that American Legion speakers are planning to go in for speeches, oratory in opposition to the open-air apostles of discontent and upholders of sovietism, the street crowds may hope for something worth hearing in place of the slanders on America and the laudation of Russia, that have been fed to them nightly throughout the summer."

Salt Lake Tribune: "When the American arrives in England he is carried away by the excellence of the beef, mutton and lamb. He finds it sweeter and of finer flavor than the inevitable cold storage offerings of the American restaurants, and it is a rare occurrence to be served with anything in the meat line which is not fresh. After a while, however, there comes to the American a hankering for hot cakes and pork and beans and pie.
He then thinks the limitations of the British menu are driven home, for England is pieless, beanless and hot-cakeless."

The Medford Mall - Tribune guardedly answers a question:
"Why does the public view the entrance of the church into politics with suspicion?" asks the Pacific Advocate, editorially. Mayhap, the public has the fool idea that the church should function as a soul-saver, instead of a votegetter; that the pulpit should not be a stump from which to shout the glories of a candidate with an incurable mania for office; and that a house of worship was not intended as an incubator for eleventh hour gossip."

Chicago News on modesty of expression: "Though legs, as a general thing, can now be heard as well as seen publicly, some remnants of old-fashioned delicacy can still be noted in the press. For example, half the newspapers state that Sampaio Correa had left Manteio, N. C., on the second leg of his flight while the other half with more reserve made it the second lap."

The Woodland Democrat is still suffering from that ailment that might be diagnosed as political rabies: "Miss Alice Robertson was renominated for Congress in Oklahoma" on the following platform:
"I am a Christian; I am an American; I am a Republican." Only a woman could reconcile the first and last expressions of faith."

Here's another old theory about snakes for Mr. Rowell to disprove.
A despatch from Vallejo says a little boy was bitten by a dead rattlesnake and is in a serious condition. Not only was the snake supposedly dead, but its head had been cut off and buried. The little fellow, 7 years old, with his small brother dug up the head and while he was handling it the jaws closed on his hand so hard they had to be priced apart.—Stockton Record.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE LITTLE CLOTHES LINE.
The little clothes line by the kitchen door!

My mother stretched it once when I was young.

And there the garments which the heavens were

Each morning very carefully
she hung.

Square bits of flannel fluttered in the breeze,

White stockings very delicate and small,

Long flowing dresses and the glad bootees,

A little blanket and a knitted shawl.

Then came the day when mother took it down,

And we forgot what symbols fluttered there;

We'd grown to breast the current of the town,

To fight for conquest and to stand to care.

Ten years ago she smiled and said to me:

"I want a little clothes line by the door."

And there she hung for all the world to see

The various bits of raiment which he wore.

Even the ragman on his alley would

Knew by the symbols fluttering on that line

That there a little baby would be found,

And gay by day he saw that glorious sign.

Then boyhood came and called our babe away,

Muscle him strong and turned his cheeks to brown,

Gave him the strength to run and romp and play

And then she took the little clothes line down.

Today I sat beside her bed, and she Smiled the sweet smile of motherhood once more.

"When I get up again," she said
"I'll want a little clothes line by the door."

A WOMAN POLICE JUDGE.
To women's wit alone is due the closing of the jail in Umatilla, Oregon. Police Judge and Recorder Bertha Cherry on the first Monday morning of her tenure in office was perplexed by the number of men appearing before her.
Her consternation was short-lived.
All of the prisoners were up on one charge. "In future," she decreed, "all citizens of Umatilla charged with intoxication and dis-orderliness will be taken care of at the hotel, where they will be locked in a room, there to remain until they pay their own board bills. All prisoners who are not citizens, having abused our hospitality, will be speeded as unwelcome guests upon the first train, freight or otherwise, irrespective of its destination." Bootlegging is

About YOUR HEALTH

Why Orderliness and System Mean Much to Well-Being...

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
Commissioner of Health, New York City.

I used to have a teacher who was always thundering:
"Order is heaven's first law!"
We never knew what he meant by this command, admonition or warning—whatever it was. Personally, I always thought it was some kind of a threat of the impending wrath of outraged Providence.

It must be that the importance of order is something particularly observed by teachers, because the other day a teacher said to me:
"Have you ever written on the value of orderliness and system?
Happiness depends on it."

I have been thinking about this conversation. The more I think about it, the more I believe the teacher is right.

A well-ordered life, systematic performance of duty, having your belongings in order, neatness of person and clothing, unflinching devotion to duty—all these things have their effect on happiness and health.

Many throbbing headaches, red eyes, flushed faces and spoiled evenings can be traced back to disordered dresser drawers. Were you ever in a hurry to get somewhere and couldn't find a clean necktie, the right pair of shoes or a misplaced necktie?

A great many attacks of apoplexy have been precipitated by the undue anger of a business man who could not find an important and necessary paper in his cluttered-up desk or safe.

Most of us live busy lives. Some of us are over-busy attempting to do too much. In almost every such life a rearrangement of the daily program will give abundance of leisure. Indeed, it cannot be said that rearrangement is needed, because this word implies there has been some sort of "arrangement" when, as a matter of fact, there has been no arrangement at all.

It is perfectly amazing what an amount of completed work can be turned out by one who systematizes his undertakings. An "efficiency expert"—and I am not over-keen about "efficiency experts"—would revolutionize the activities of many a bustling business man who is first in the office in the morning and the last to leave at night. Order, regularity, system would enable an over-active man to play a game of go every day, to get to dinner on time, and to enjoy several evening entertainments every week.

"I can hear the sneers of many business men:
"You can't conduct big business that way!"
All right! If you can't be taught to run a big business enterprise on system and within reasonable hours, you are not fit for the job!
You may get on for a time, but you will break down as sure as fate.

If you can't order your own life you are not competent to direct the affairs of other people.

It makes me sad to see great men of affairs wearing themselves out needlessly. The world needs these men. But they are doomed to short careers unless they care for their bodies. Unless they systematize their efforts, and get time for exercise in this way, they must do less work. They can't spend all their days far into the night in the office and expect to live out the normal expectancy of efficient effort.

My old teacher is right—"Order is heaven's first law!"

OAKS' OUTFIELDER HELD AFTER ROW IN LOCAL CAFE

Denny Wilie, outfielder for the Oakland baseball club, and David Butler, his companion, are out on bail, charged with interfering with an officer as the result of an automobile crash and a cafe row early last evening. They will be given a hearing Monday morning.

According to the police the trouble started when Butler, driving Wilie's machine, which contained also an unidentified young woman, attempted to park in front of the Republic cafe in Twelfth street, near Broadway, and crashed into a standing machine.

The party then went to the cafe, where they were found by Corporal Charles Carey, who had been notified of the accident by passersby.

Butler is said by Carey to have admitted his responsibility and offered to pay for all damages to the other machine, when Wilie interrupted with the announcement that he "wouldn't pay a red cent."

"I told Wilie to keep quiet or he would find himself on the twelfth floor of the city hall," Corporal Carey reported, "and he told me that he was taken there he would be out in three minutes. I then placed him under arrest."

Immediately Wilie was apprehended, according to the police. Butler attempted to rescue his friend from the clutches of the law and grappled with Corporal Carey. While the officer and the two men were fighting Policemen Barnev Curran and W. J. Hughes arrived and assisted in the arrest.

Both men and the young woman were taken to the city hall, where Wilie was booked for drunkenness and violating the parking ordinance and Butler was charged with interference with an officer. The young woman was released.

Wilie has been a member of the Oakland baseball team for the last three years and is now on the injured list, having retired temporarily last Wednesday when he was hurt sliding to second base. Butler told the police that he had no occupation.

Hillside District Menaced By Flames

BERKELEY, Aug. 26.—Heroic work on the part of the Berkeley fire department probably saved the exclusive hillside region of the city from a serious conflagration yesterday afternoon when the home of Mrs. Gordon Bradley, 1494 Euclid avenue, caught fire. Sparks were blown by the wind to a half dozen other residences in the vicinity, but serious damage was confined to the Bradley residence, where the loss was approximately $2000. Sparks from a nearby chimney caused the blaze. The Bradleys were away from home and Mrs. John D. Galloway, a neighbor, discovering the blaze, turned in the alarm and then entered the house to fight the fire.

Realty Broker's Funeral Is Set

BERKELEY, Aug. 26.—Funeral services for D. S. Sayer, well known Berkeley realty broker, will be held at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon from undertaker parlors at 2174 University avenue. Sayer's body arrived in Berkeley yesterday from Portland where his death occurred earlier in the week while on a visit to his sister. Mrs. Sayer accompanied the body to Berkeley. Sayer was 51 years old and besides his widow is survived by two daughters. He resided at 1544 Spruce street, this city.

EDUCATORS VISIT MILLS CONVOCATION

Feature of Occasion Is Annual Dinner Given to Members of Entering Class By Dean of Residences

Numerous educational authorities from various parts of the United States as well as from European countries attended yesterday's convocation ceremonies at Mills college. A feature of the day was the annual dinner to the members of the entering class, given by the dean of residence, Professor Hattie B. Edge. Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, president of the college, gave the invocation.

Among the guests at the luncheon were: Dr. May Roberts Coolidge, professor of sociology, Dr. Cardinal Goodwin, professor of American history; Mrs. Edridge Fowler of Pasadena; Mrs. Anson Blake of Berkeley; Miss Henrietta Brewer of Oakland; Mrs. Elizabeth Potter, librarian of Mills college; W. D. Hancock of Balliol college, Oxford university, England; Miss Marguerite Billian; Miss Jennie Gentry; Miss Marie Deschamps; Miss Jeanne Costre, daughter of Professor Costre; and Mrs. Alice M. Dickson, editor of the Petit Journal, published in California.

DR. CESTRE SPEAKS.
Taking for his subject "The Kingdom of Ideals in France and America," Dr. Charles Cestre addressed the students during the morning, following the convocation exercises, and said in part:

"Although this is the first time I have visited your campus, I have heard so much from French government exchange students, who have taken degrees here, that I may safely say I am attached to this institution by all the good things I know of it. And I feel an especially personal debt of gratitude for the friendly and hospitable spirit which was shown to my daughter while she was a student in your midst."

"In approaching my subject this morning I wish to assert that there are no two countries in the world more closely linked by ties of friendship than are France and America. The friendly interest began before historical events ally brought us together. Before American institutions were known and understood, they had partially influenced the country. For example, Benjamin Franklin, with his good temper, keen mind and ready wit, established a reputation for American thinkers. Conversely De Tocqueville suggested the theory of the rights of man. The American Declaration of Independence bears the stamp of French philosophy and idealism of the eighteenth century. The rights of men, the equality of men, as shown by French thought, inspired enthusiasm in the hearts of Americans which the wrongs of England might not have provoked."

PROFESSOR TO LAFAYETTE.
Professor Cestre gave other illustrations to prove his point, citing Lafayette as one to whom America declared a debt of gratitude, but added that in the gallant service of her soldiers during a recent great war America had more than repaid that debt and that now France was the country possessing an obligation. "To many Americans who were not soldiers," the speaker continued, "our gratitude is peculiar and I would mention particularly the American women who helped 500,000 orphan children."

"There was also great social service rendered, and I trust that America will believe in the integrity of my country and not be led astray by rumors and false statements concerning France. A friendship lasting through the last centuries must not today be broken by false statements, or even more dangerous half-statements."

Professor Cestre, who has been lecturing in California during the summer months, delayed his return to Paris to speak at Mills College Convocation.

GUESTS AT DINNER.
Among the guests who attended the Dean's annual dinner were, in addition to the 175 French President Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, Mrs. Eleanor Stowe Bancroft, Miss Ella Bourne, Dr. Esther A. Gave, and head residents of the different halls.

At the conclusion of the dinner the Dean introduced the speakers, and called for volunteers from among the freshmen to rise and speak for the State from which they came. It was found that nineteen of the States of the Union and three foreign countries were represented.

The States sending daughters to California for education include: Arkansas, Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, Nebraska, Oregon, Oklahoma, Texas, Washington, Oregon, and California. Foreign countries include France, Japan and China.

HONEYMOON WAS 'FLOATED' ON BAD CHECKS, CHARGE

BERKELEY, Aug. 26.—A honeymoon may be interrupted for Adolph D. Berg, 25 years old, pseudo college student, short story writer and self-styled man-about-town, if the police can find the scene of his matrimonial happiness.

Berg is declared to have obtained a marriage license this week and to have raised funds for his matrimonial venture by means of passing a series of bad checks on Berkeley friends and merchants. The marriage license he exhibited to his friends as the medium for making a "touch" which would carry him over the wedding festivities. The name of the girl on the license is declared to be that of Miss Louise Swanson, aged 25, residence Berkeley, occupation also a journalist. No trace of Miss Swanson can be found by the Berkeley authorities.

According to developments short-story writing did not pay the prospective bridegroom and for two months he served as bellhop at the Faculty Club on the university campus. Faculty Club officials say he came to them recommended by the employment bureau of the Oakland Y. M. C. A.

Berg's check operations were reported to the police yesterday by J. R. Meaker, owner of the Berkeley Auto Service Company, 2170 Shattuck avenue. Meaker says that Berg has $25 of his money and almost $300 in taxi service. Roy Brasfield, proprietor of a poolroom at 3313 Telegraph avenue, is also disclosed as a victim of the young writer, having advanced him $20 on one occasion. A. S. Brasfield, haberdasher, 2245 Telegraph avenue, also contributed $20 to the matrimonial fund.

A marriage license was issued on Wednesday in San Francisco to Adolph D. Berg, 25, and Louise Swanson, 25, both of Berkeley. While representing himself to be a college student, the police say, no trace of Berg can be found in campus records.

'Bum,' Scrub Dog, May Die, But Thieves Are Routed

THIS is the story of "Bum," who boasts no blue blood, who cannot trace his pedigree, and who has never crossed the portals of that earthly heaven of all dogs—the bench show.

Yet today there is not a blue blood of the canine family in San Leandro who would not change places with "Bum" on a second's notice despite the fact that "Bum's" life is hanging in the balance while veterinarians are working to spare him for a little while.

While this is the story of "Bum" it is a story based on mute evidence and could "Bum" talk the language of humans he could a tale unfold, without thought of a pun. "Bum," he it known, is a setter of uncertain parentage, the property of G. Angeli.

For several years, in fact, since "Bum" was a puppy, he has made his home in the stores owned by his master in the town of San Leandro. "Bum" has never been known as a watch-dog in that sense of the word, but his loyalty has never been questioned.

This morning when Angeli opened his store its condition was chaotic, a slot machine had been broken into, a window had been forced and all the other evidences of burglary were outstanding and there in the center of the floor, far from his wonted corner lay "Bum" helpless because of cracked vertebrae caused by the burglar's jimmy.

The story of the fight and "Bum's" successful routing of the thief who fled without securing any loot must go unwritten. When questioned "Bum" makes an almost imperceptible movement with his caudal appendage. He is a sick but happy dog is "Bum" and his place is assured in the San Leandro fold of fame.

Heath Club Plans Contests For Picnic

The Heath Club of the Oakland Fire Department is giving its third annual picnic at Shell Mound Park today and tonight. A waltz contest at 8 p. m. is promised as one of the attractions.

The committee in charge of tickets consists of Bobbie Walmsworth, Harry Mulligan, Pete Saul, Henry Longfellow, Henry Brumund, Barney Muldowney, G. C. Russo and Mike Reegan.

The dance committee includes A. E. Peterson, Henry Barlow, A. E. Rowe, Harry Kuhl, Eddie Healey, J. Madrid, F. Vernon and Freddie Carlson.

Members of the music committee are: M. Maderros, A. E. Peterson, Harry Kuhl and F. Vernon.

The finance committee consists of J. H. R. Bruce, Henry Longfellow, Pete Saul and Barney Muldowney.

LOWEST TAX IN BERKELEY, SAYS MAYOR

Per Capita Rate of $13.40 Is $5 Below Average for Six Cities of Same Size in State, Figures Show

BERKELEY, Aug. 26.—Berkeley claims honors for the lowest per capita tax of any city of its class in the state, according to figures received by Mayor Louis Bartlett from State Controller Ray L. Riley.

The report made public today shows the per capita payments for municipal services, including education, trust funds and public service enterprises, for the year 1921.

The per capita taxes for various cities of Berkeley's class in population are as follows:
Sacramento, $5,000, $20.33; Berkeley, $9,000, $13.40; Long Beach, $55,000, $18.93; Pasadena, $50,000, $20.98; Fresno, $45,000, $22.37; Stockton, $43,000, $17.58.

"Berkeley is the lowest of these cities in its per capita taxes and is more than $5 lower than the average of the six cities," comments Mayor Bartlett. "It is conspicuously lower in the item of general government, being $1.70, as against $2.55, the highest figure."

Two Held in Raid On Liquor Charge

Two men were arrested last night by the "dry squad" for violating the prohibition law. In each place a small quantity of liquor was seized by the raiding party. The men were taken into custody by George Berner, Clyde Miller and Wallace Canning. The men arrested are Antonio Gachini, 4701 Shattuck avenue; Jack McFadden, 339 Eleventh street.

POLICEMAN SUSPENDED FOR LAXITY

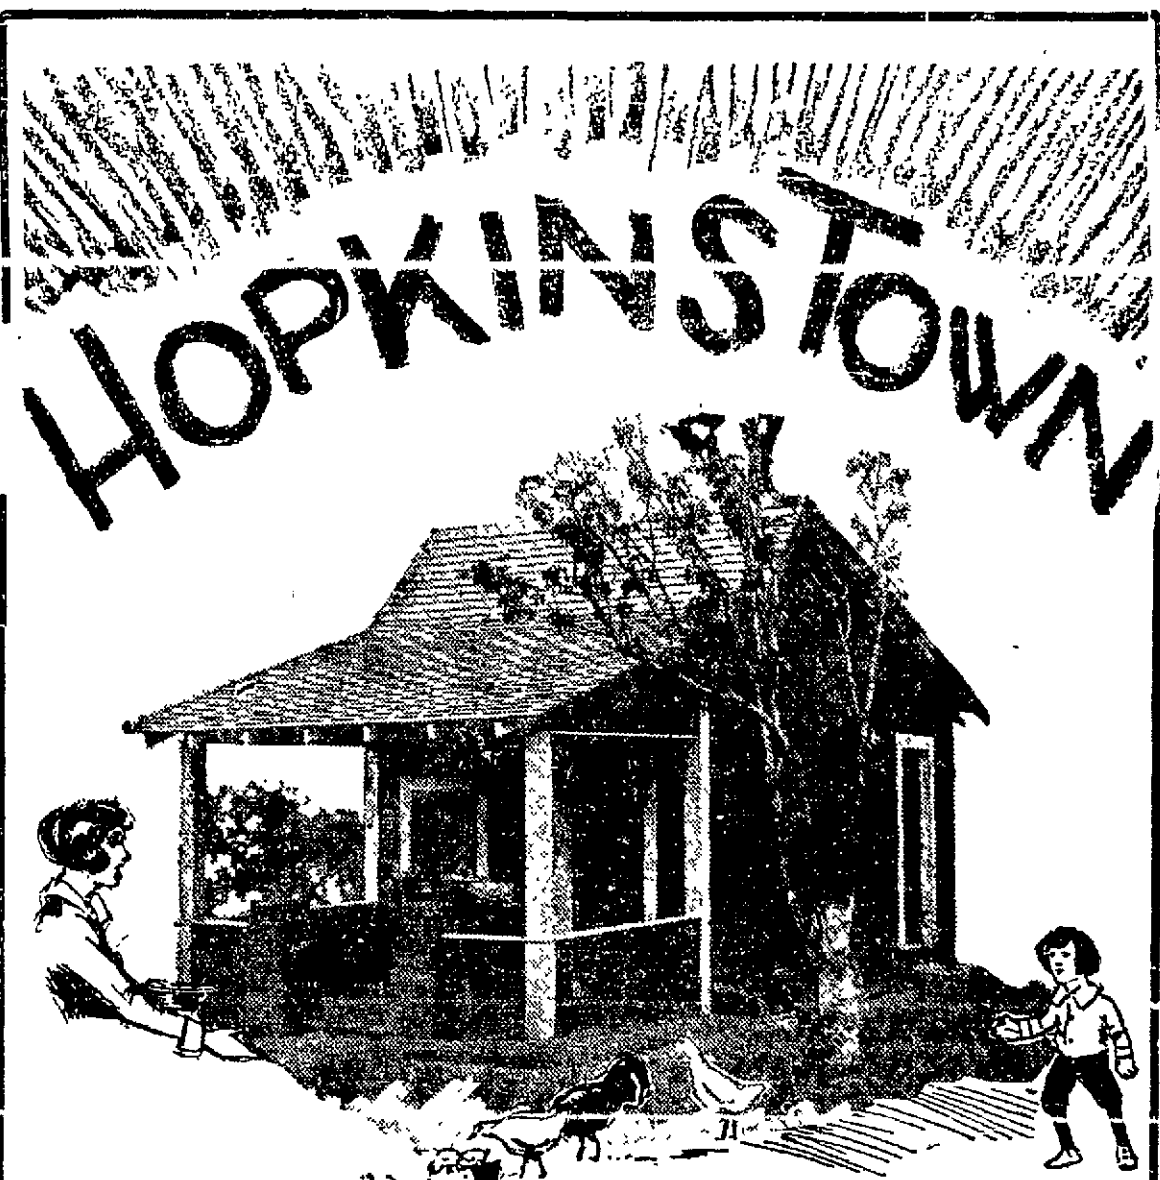

Patrolman Hedigan Gets Lay-off For Six Months For His Failure to Arrest Man on Felony Charge, Announced

Patrolman Patrick J. Hedigan must attend the police school for six months because he failed to arrest a man wanted by the department on a felony charge after he had been turned over to him by a citizen. He was also suspended from the department for ten days by Chief of Police James T. Drew, it became known today.

Thursday night Theodore Klose turned over to Hedigan a man who was wanted for failing to provide for his two minor children. Hedigan, according to Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen, failed to hold the man because he thought he was not the right man.

NEW ORGANIZATIONS ENTER RUNNERS IN MERRITT MARATHON

MIKE BRADY, OF OAKLAND HILLS CLUB, CAPTURES THE WESTERN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

EASTBAY CLUBS ALSO SWELL ENTRY LIST FOR ADMISSION DAY

Runners of Eastbay Continue to File Entries—Art Forward Writes About Race.

By DOUG. MONTELL.

Seven entries this morning brought the list for the Tenth Annual Lake Merritt Marathon over the sixty mark and brought starters from five different Eastbay organizations. Two unattached runners completed today's list. The present entry list shows runners from twenty-two organizations, all in the Eastbay, of which eight are high schools and the remainder athletic clubs, industrial plants and the Y. M. C. A. This is a larger representation of the organizations of the bay region than there were in last year's Marathon at the time the entries closed. There is still another week in which runners can send in their entry blanks and this will be the busiest period of the entire pre-race period for runners from various organizations will be rounded up and their blanks sent in post haste.

The last minute rush always swells the list by anywhere from forty to fifty runners with the usual quota of stragglers who mail their blanks on the last minute allowed. Runners who have thus far delayed sending in their entry blanks for the TRIBUNE Marathon should remember that the date set for entries to close is Saturday, September 2, one week from today. It is absolutely necessary that the filing of entries should close ahead of the day of the race and runners will aid us greatly in compiling the list of starters and making the necessary preparations if they will send in their blanks the first post of next week.

Former Winner Again May Run.

Word was received today from Art Forward, former Olympic club runner and Marathon runner for the past several years who is well known in the local field of athletics. Art is in Los Angeles at the present time running for the Los Angeles Athletic club but he has not forgotten the race in which he has had such marked success as a contestant in previous years. Forward won the 1920 TRIBUNE Marathon and was second in last year's race, being defeated by Paul Nieman of the Unione Sportiva Italiana. Neither Nieman or Forward have as yet filed entry blanks but Forward indicated that he would like to compete if he was not barred by the P. A. A. Being out of its jurisdiction now in the Southern Association, he is eligible for the race, as it is not being conducted by the P. A. A. this year and he therefore can enter if he makes the trip north.

Bay Cities Club Is Represented.

Among the new organizations to enter the lists today is the Bay Cities club of Oakland, Ben Calhoun under the colors of that organization. The Iona Athletic club did not allow any grass to grow under its feet and the entry of Fred Bianchi was filed early this morning. This makes eight runners who have runners in the big race the morning of Admission Day and there are others yet to file entries. None representing the Athens Athletic club have yet entered, but the organization is expected to furnish several runners during the next week.

Further complicating the industrial list came the entry of Patrick E. Smith of the Sunset Lumber company, which will run opposition to the Western Electric and East Bay Enameling company for industrial honors. The Western Electric company has yet to enter, but the live wire organization, another entry from that plant coming in this morning from Bill Vahey.

Lincoln School of Alameda Entry.

Lincoln school of Alameda will be represented in the race by E. Thompson, who entered from the Island City late last night. It took Alameda runners longer to get started sending in their entries than it did those of Oakland, but now that they are under way it appears as though it would be difficult to stop the Enchanted boys.

Two runners running unattached filed blanks today. Henry E. Lee was the first to come in and his was closely followed by Raymond Soanes.

Remember, runners, one more week to enter. Those of you who have filed blanks representing an organization get busy and round up others to run with you. Remember that team prize that goes to the Eastbay high school having the largest number of starters. They don't need to finish Oakland High appears to have it won unless others take a last minute spurt.

L.A.A.C. Holds Track Tryouts This Afternoon

Leading Collegiate Stars in Lists of Southern Team For Sacramento Meet.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—Tryouts for the Los Angeles Athletic Club track and field team to represent the club at the Far Western track meet at Sacramento, September 2, and the National A. A. U. track and field championships at Newark, N. J., a week later, were to be held at the University of Southern California today. More than fifty aspirants were in track suits and of that number about half will be sent to the Sacramento meet and about twelve will represent the club at Newark. Warm weather was expected in view of the two preceding days, when the mercury hovered around 90.

Earl Thompson, world's champion high hurdler, who it was said would not represent the club, was to be on hand. Another hurdler of note was Tom Murray, former A. A. U. champion. Otto Anderson, American Olympic team hurdler in 1920 was also to start.

Clerence "Bud" Houser and Glen Hartranft, national interscholastic and intercollegiate shotput champions, respectively with John Boyl and Norman "Swede" Anderson were to have the weights.

Charles W. Paddock did not don a suit for the sprints. However, two sprinters of note, Herschel Smith, national interscholastic champion, and Clifford Argus, who has been running the 100 in around 9.4 seconds, were on hand, favorites over a large field.

George Schiller, American Olympic team quarter-mile and mile runner, and Clifford Argus, who has been running the 100 in around 9.4 seconds, were on hand, favorites over a large field.

Dick Emmons, Joe Chapman, Goodenough and Richards have been making around 11 1/2 feet in the pole vault in practice, and were to be closely watched today.

Flint Manner, Stanford University javelin tosser, holder of the Pacific coast conference record for the javelin throw, has announced that he will compete for the club team. He has been throwing around 200 feet in practice.

Marion P. B., who was runner-up in all-around championship last year, has been training for some time, and was to be the only man to take part in this event.

Officials Chosen For U. C. U. S. C. Game

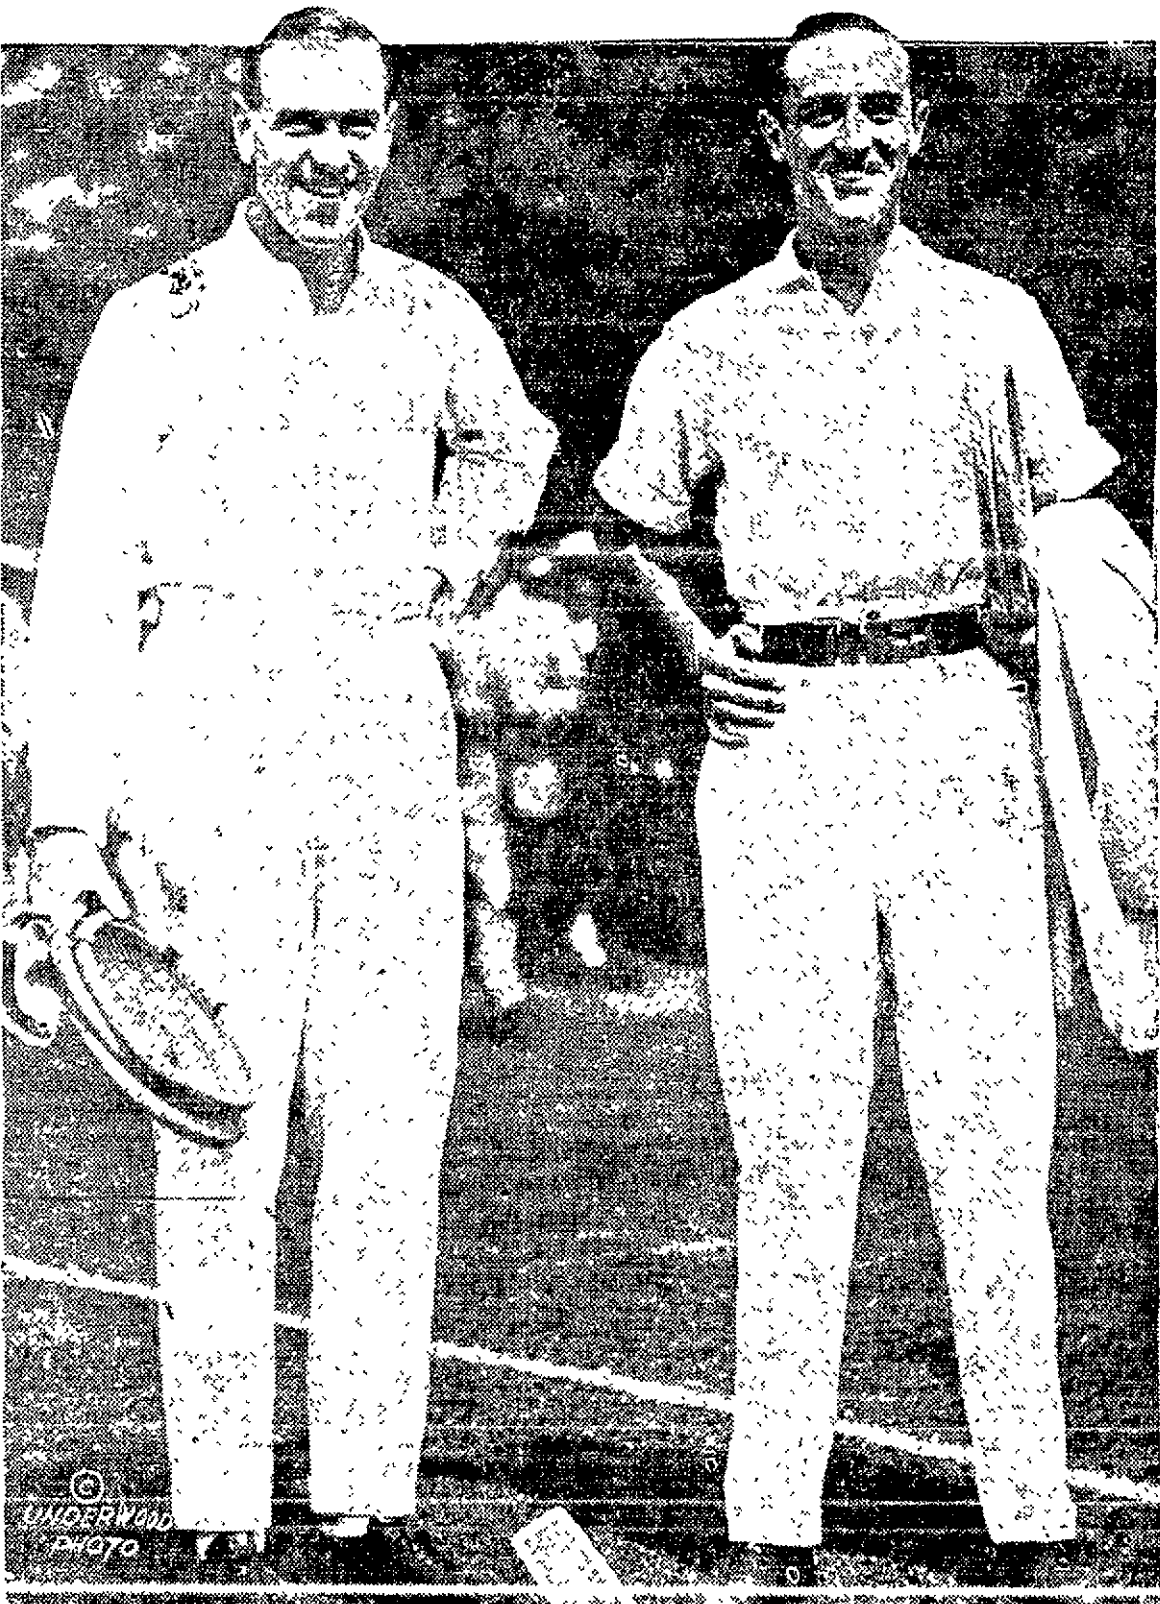

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—The officials for the University of California-University of Southern California football game to be played at the new stadium of the Tournament of Roses Association October 28 have been named. George Varian, sporting editor of the Spokane Chronicle, will be referee. Bud Clark, former University of Oregon football player, will act as umpire. Louis Foley, local high school coach, will be field judge, and Harry Milner, former University of Nebraska football player, will be head linesman.

Golfer Plays Shot From Bird's Nest

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 26.—One of the most unusual golf shots on record was executed here yesterday by Mrs. Galen Blackford. After an approach shot had landed in a bird's nest in a tree, Mrs. Blackford climbed the limb and played a pitch shot on to the nearby green from where she holed out in one putt thus halving the hole.

Foreign Stars Playing on United States Courts

One of the men most feared by the American Davis Cup team in the matches that will be played by the U. S. team in defense of the trophy is GERALD L. PATTERSON, Australian net wizard, shown on the left. Patterson is the outstanding star of the recent matches in which Australia eliminated Spain from the challenge round. COUNT MANUEL DE COMAR, one of the Spanish team who has been playing on American courts all week, is shown on the right.

FRED FULTON KNOCKED OUT IN THE FIRST

ST. PAUL, Aug. 26.—Billy Miske, St. Paul heavyweight, knocked out Fred Fulton of their scheduled ten round bout here last night.

Miske was the aggressor from the start and after slightly more than a minute of mixing, floored Fulton for a count of seven, using a right hook. When Fulton got to his feet, Miske charged him again, and knocked him out with a left hook.

Miske weighed 188 and Fulton 207.

It was Miske's fight from the first rush, and in the two minutes of fighting Fulton did not land one solid blow. Just before he was floored the first time, Fulton peeked Miske with his long left, but that was the closest he came to landing a blow.

Miske had an air of confidence when he went into the ring and this he showed. In fighting he had the advantage, and at the very outset annoyed Fulton with a stomach punch, a place the plasterer always seeks to keep protected.

Though Fulton is rated Miske's superior as a boxer, he showed no inclination to stand up and box Miske, and the latter constantly had the bigger man backing away or going into a crouch.

Football Practice Starts at Fremont

Football started off at Fremont with a bang this week about thirty-five enthusiastic pigskin losses appeared for the first work-out, arrayed in many different kinds and colored outfits, but all filled with the same pep and spirit that has brought many championships to Fremont.

The coaching of the team will be done by Coach Goodwin with other members of the faculty acting as his assistants. Goodwin has been at the University of Montana and has had two years of football experience to his credit.

There are many new candidates for the team and with the ability that has been shown in spring and opening practice this semester, there is every reason to believe that the shoes of the veterans who have left will be well filled.

Stubby Kruger to Meet Weissmuller

DETROIT, Aug. 26.—Harold Kruger, titleholder, and John Weissmuller, the Chicago aquatic star were listed in the entries for the national A. A. U. 150-yard backstroke championship carded at Belle Isle today as one of the opening events in the two-day national and central A. A. U. swimming meet.

STEWART LEADS IN QUALIFYING ROUND ON LINKS

DEL MONTE, Aug. 26.—W. L. Stewart of Pasadena led yesterday in the qualifying round of the summer golf tournament which is a preliminary to next week's state championship play. He scored a 78, the lowest in which he has done the course in years of play. E. H. Lestock Gregory, San Francisco, won low net with a card of 82-12-70.

Although the California championship meet is a full week away, close to 200 entries from men and 50 from women have been received and indications are that a record number will enter in the competition.

Jack Neville, Oakland, and E. S. Armstrong, Los Angeles, former state champions, are entered. Dr. Paul M. Hunter, present titleholder, and Dr. C. H. Walter, Northern California champion, will not be able to play. A feature of the play this year will be the entry of Ashton Stanley, Del Monte; Togo Osborne, San Francisco, and Bobby Ross, Los Angeles, former junior state champions.

Arrangements were made yesterday for an exhibition four-ball match here next Friday for the benefit of John Black, Claremont, runner-up in the national open championship, who was severely injured several weeks ago in an automobile accident. Maurice Dutra, Peter Hay, Eddie Traube and Harold Sampson will be the players.

Dorothy Day Wins Middle West Trot

AURORA, Ill., Aug. 26.—Dorothy Day, a chestnut mare, owned by Fred Johnson of Calgary, Alta., won the 2-09 trot, feature event on the closing day's racing program at the Central States Fair and Exposition. The fair will close today.

Mike Brady, Former Caddy, Wins Western

Golf Title Goes to Professional of Oakland Hills Club, Scene of Match.

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., Aug. 26.—Another former caddy pushed his way into the circle of golf champions yesterday when Mike Brady, Oakland Hills professional, finished the 72 holes of play in the Western open tournament over his home course with a score of 281, ten strokes better than his nearest competitors.

Twenty-five years ago Brady, a little freckled face youngster, used to caddy at the Commonwealth Country club near Boston, Mass., and his ability to handle clubs when he was not chasing balls for members caused many of them to remark that "some day that little fellow will be a golfer."

Mike didn't take long to justify their remarks—to a certain extent—for as a mere boy he began to annex titles in minor competition, but it was not until a quarter of a century later that Mike, his thinning hair tinged with gray, won his first major title. That was yesterday.

ANOTHER CADDY.
Brady's victory placed five of the six major golf titles of the world in the hands of former caddies. Walter Hagen, American holder of the British open, learned to shoot as a caddy. Gene Sarazen, open titleholder, was a caddy around Rye, N. Y., until three years ago; Jess Guilford, national amateur champion, learned to play as a caddy. "Chick" Evans, western amateur champion, began his golfing life looking for wild shots of others, and now Brady, also once a caddy, has earned his title. Only the British amateur title is held by a player who did not begin life on the links as a caddy.

Jock Hutchison of Chicago, former British open champion, and Laurie Ayer, of Chicago, led for second place in the tournament with cards totalling 301.
"Chick" Evans of Chicago led the amateurs, running twelve places behind Brady.

Brady's work outlasted that of any other player from start to finish. It was his party throughout for he got the 140 other entrants to come to his own front yard, where he proceeded to beat them to a frazzle. He outdrove most of them, outplayed all of them.

CONTENDER FOR YEARS.
Mike has been a contender for years, but this is the first time he ever came through. Back in 1911 he tied with J. J. McDermott of Atlantic City, and McDonald Smith of Claremont, Calif., at 297, for the national open at Wheaton, Ill. But when the playoff came, Mike was second to McDermott by two strokes.

In 1913 he was second to McDermott by seven strokes in the western open at Memphis, Tenn. Then in 1919 he and Walter Hagen each finished the national open at Wheaton, Mass., with 301 scores, but the playoff found Hagen with a 77 card and Mike with one totalling 78.

That has been Mike's luck throughout his golfing career all ways near the top, but never there until yesterday.

Because of his many failures after being near winning, it has been predicted by the gallery experts that Brady would blow up yesterday and that Hutchison would take the title. Everywhere, it was remarked with emphasis.

Not once in the entire 72 holes did Brady falter. Whenever he went over par he generally came right back and made birdies to even it up. His score of 3 over par for the 12 holes is truly remarkable when it is remembered that until this tournament par had been 74 or 75 for 72 holes on the Oakland Hills course.

The tournament lacked the international atmosphere of most western opens, due to the fact that Walter Hagen, Jim Barnes, Gene Sarazen and the Britons touring the country, all were tied up with exhibition matches and did not play.

Four Rounders to Train Tomorrow in Local Gymnasiums

With Tommy Simpson having one of his best boxing cards of the season lined up for next Wednesday night at the Oakland Auditorium, there was an early rush last evening for tickets and the largest crowd of the year promises to be on the job. For the next few days, and tomorrow in particular, the fur is going to fly fast in several local gymnasiums. The four-rounders matches in the invitation tournament at the West End Club, Seventh and Pine streets, and at Watson's gymnasium, Thirty-fourth and Hollis streets. Jimmy Hennessey and Jack Buckley have taken over Watson's place and turned it into one of the best in the city around the bay. Jimmy Duffy and Gene Cline will provide the main, and there are a lot of other good boys on the card. The return of Joe Azevedo to the four-round game is pleasing a lot of fans.

Three Britons, One American, in Finals

SACRAMENTO, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Three Britons and one American survived the first and second round matches in the invitation golf tournament at the National links yesterday for the semi-finals.

On the upper side George Rotan of Houston, Texas, will meet C. O. Hooman, England, while in the other bracket the contestants will be W. B. Torrance and Cyril Tolley, two more from overseas.

Dr. Paul Hunter to Play Benefit Match

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—Dr. Paul M. Hunter, California amateur golf champion, agreed to meet the winner of the California state title tourney to be held at Del Monte, September 2 to 10, for the benefit of the John Black fund. It was announced by D. Scott Christman, golf expert, that Hunter will not be able to defend his title this year at Del Monte.

FOOTBALL FOR MOOSE.
VALLEJO, Aug. 26.—The Junior Moose football eleven will meet the local high school aggregation in a practice game the latter part of September, according to the present plans. The coach at the high school is not in favor of his boys playing any fast teams until they are in the best of shape.

that Mike wouldn't be able to stand the pace that Jock would set. When Jock finished the morning round with 75 against Mike's 76, and was only three strokes behind in the total, the predictions were repeated with emphasis.

But yesterday afternoon it was Mike who set the pace and Jock who was the loser. Jock's heart of the Chicagoan by sinking a 75-foot rump for a birdie three on the first hole and the more they played the better Mike shot and the worse Jock handled his clubs.

Not once in the entire 72 holes did Brady falter. Whenever he went over par he generally came right back and made birdies to even it up. His score of 3 over par for the 12 holes is truly remarkable when it is remembered that until this tournament par had been 74 or 75 for 72 holes on the Oakland Hills course.

The tournament lacked the international atmosphere of most western opens, due to the fact that Walter Hagen, Jim Barnes, Gene Sarazen and the Britons touring the country, all were tied up with exhibition matches and did not play.

Australians Enter Finals For U.S. Title

O'Hara Wood and Patterson to Meet Tilden-Richards For Crown.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The Australian tennis team that came to this country to capture the Davis cup, significant of international team supremacy, last night stood as challenger also for the national team honors. In the semi-final round matches yesterday of the national tennis tournament, the Australian team, led by the Longwood Cricket club, the Australians, Gerald L. Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood, advanced to the final round by defeating R. W. Vance, 6-1, 7-5, 6-3.

W. T. Tilden II. and Vincent Richards, passing through champions, moved up to meet them, turning back the combination of William M. Johnston and Wallace F. Hanson, also in straight sets but always after duce, 8-6, 10-8, 7-5.

The national junior doubles champions, A. W. Jones and W. W. Ingraham, of Providence, who distinguished themselves in the earlier play by taking a set from Tilden and Richards, defended their honors by a final round of the junior doubles tournament yesterday. A pair of local lads, M. T. Hill and H. J. Johnson, won, took the second championship in the boys' division.

The national mixed doubles championship play was marked by the advance of Tilden and Molla Bjurstedt Mallory to the final round by playing two matches, the second a defeat of Mrs. May Sutton Bundy and Beretra, 6-4, 6-4.

In the tournament for women the entrants for which were almost identical with those for the national championship of last week, a like result developed in the advance of Mrs. Mallory and Miss Willis to decide the final. Miss Willis defeated Mrs. Bundy in the semi-final yesterday.

National mixed doubles championship, third round: Miss Helen Willis and Howard Kinsey, San Francisco, defeated Miss Helen Gilleland, Philadelphia, and Clifford Lockhart, Boston, 6-3, 6-3.

Fourth round: Mrs. F. I. Mallory, New York, and W. T. Tilden II, Philadelphia, defeated Mrs. B. F. Briggs, S. H. Voshell, New York, 6-1, 6-3.

Ted O'Hara Loses Decision in South

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—O'Hara, 133 pounder, outboxed Teddy O'Hara of Oakland in the last three rounds of their four round main event at the Hollywood American Legion stadium last night and was given the decision. In the semi-finals, Billy (Gus) Latta, Los Angeles lightweight-right, knocked out Jack Irman, of Santa Ana, Calif., in the first round. Ad Mackie, Los Angeles, 133 pounder, outpointed Tommy Carter of El Paso, Texas. Joe Dunn of Oakland shaded Danny Sirolos, Los Angeles 142 pounder.

IMPRISE IS RELEASED.
ROCHESTER, N. Y.—William McGowan, International League umpire, who was arrested several days ago for taking a swing at a Syracuse player, has been released by J. C. Toole, president of the league.

Entertaining is such a pleasure when there is a piano in the home

There is almost always some one present who can play, and everyone can sing, or at least try to.

Of course, an evening spent in this manner isn't terribly exciting, but it is enjoyable and peculiarly satisfying. It's so friendly, you know.

Is there a piano in your home? There really should be when you can get a good one at such a low price by reading the Classified Columns of today and especially of last Wednesday (the Wednesday Color Section).

My Favorite Stories by IRVIN S. COBB

The Most Unkindest Cut of All

On the stage of a music hall in the east end of London a memory wizard with a pronounced Cockney accent was offering an exhibition of his skill. In response to questions from the audience he gave, offhand, and promptly, the dates of historic events, the distance from the earth to the moon, and other facts and figures without limit.

It was quite evident from the language of some of his statements that the performer was a most patriotic Briton. Invariably, when mentioning a great Englishman or a great English achievement, his voice rose exultantly.

Sitting well down in front were two Americans. They figured that the wizard must have accomplices in the house to ask him questions prepared beforehand. To find out whether or not the performer did have the powers of memory he boasted and with a view also to arousing his patriotic fervor to a still higher pitch if possible, one of the Yankees called out:

"Professor, please tell me what memorable event occurred on July the Fourth, 1776?"

Without a moment's hesitation the professor shot back his reply:

"A h'nfarnal h'outrage, sir!" he shouted.

Uncle Wiggily Stories by HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S PUNCTURED TIRE

UNCLE WIGGILY had finished digging the well into which K'ithe Kat told, Nurse Jane had drawn up an old moss-covered bucket full of water from the well and was quite happy. The bunny gentleman was sitting on the front porch of his hollow stump bungalow, thoughtfully twinking his pink nose, when, all at once his muskrat lady housekeeper called:

"Oh, I have just thought of something!"

"What is it?" asked Uncle Wiggily, feeling of the place where his rheumatism sometimes pained him. "If you want another well dug Nurse Jane, I think you had better wait a day or two."

"Oh, it isn't that," laughed Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "But now that I can draw such fresh, cold water from my well I think I will give you some molasses candy for you and the animal children."

"That would be very nice," agreed Uncle Wiggily, "but what has water from the well to do with molasses candy?"

"Well, eating molasses candy always makes me thirsty," explained Nurse Jane, "and when I'm thirsty from eating molasses candy I can drink water from my new well. So if you'll go to the store for some molasses, Uncle Wiggily, I'll make the candy."

"Indeed, I shall be most happy to get you some molasses," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "And, since it is not far enough to the molasses store to go in my ship, I'll use my auto, which I hope you get no puncture in your tires," wished Nurse Jane. "If you get a hole in a tire you'll have to mend it."

"That isn't the worst," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "If I get a puncture I can mend the hole easily enough. But the hardest work is to pump new air back into the tire. However, we shall not worry about that. Ho! for the molasses candy," he sang in jolly fashion.

Then he gave his automobile a little kick of gasoline and away he rode to the molasses store. It did not take long to fill the jug with the sweet, sticky stuff that Nurse Jane intended to use in the making of molasses candy.

Uncle Wiggily was on his way home, bouncing along in his auto, when, all of a sudden there was a hissing noise and the car seemed to settle down on one side.

"A puncture!" cried the rabbit gentleman. And, surely enough, it was a hole in his tire. All the air came leaking out with a hiss.

"Well, nothing to do but mend

The Bear pumped his hardest

the hole, pump new air in my tire and then rise on," said Uncle Wiggily, after a bit. I haven't a spare tire, worse luck. However, pumping up a tire will be good exercise for me. I'll be so hungry for molasses candy that I will enjoy it very much."

Taking off his coat, Uncle Wiggily sat down beside the road, after removing the punctured tire, and began to mend the inner tube. He put on a patch, put the tube back in the tire, slipped it on the rim and then began to pump in the air.

Up and down, up and down, up and down bobbed Uncle Wiggily, working the handle of the foot air pump. All of a sudden there was a rustling in the bushes, and a voice cried:

"To whom are you bowing so much? If you are making those up and down bobbing bows to me, you are looking the wrong way. I'm here behind you!"

Turning, Uncle Wiggily saw the big Bushy Bear.

"Oh, I wasn't bowing to you, if you please, good Mr. Bear," said the bunny.

"I'm not Good Mr. Bear! I'm Bad Mr. Bear," was the growling reply. "And if you aren't bowing what are you doing?"

"I—I'm putting air in my auto tire," answered Mr. Longears.

"But I fear I am not strong enough to pump in as much air as I need. It takes a very strong animal to pump up an auto tire with a foot pump," said the bunny. "I am not strong enough. I don't believe even you, bad Mr. Bear, would be strong enough to pump up this tire," said Uncle Wiggily with a sly twinkle of his pink nose. For he was getting ready to play a trick on that Bear, the bunny was.

"Fool!" The ideal Mr. Bear was not strong enough to pump up a tire! I'll show you!" growled the Bear. "Here, give me that pump! I'll pump up the tire for you, and then I'll nibble your ears."

"Maybe you will and maybe you will not!" thought the bunny as he gave the pump to the Bear. The big savage creature began to pump, up and down, harder and harder and faster and faster.

"Is there air enough in the tire now, good Mr. Bear?"

"No, it needs more," said Uncle Wiggily, feeling of the tire. And, as he did so, he loosened the rubber hose that was fast to the wheel of his auto. You'll have to pump a lot harder, Bad Mr. Bear," said the bunny.

"Oh, I can pump three times as hard!" boasted the Bear, and he did so. But just then Uncle Wiggily took off the nose, and as the Bear pumped his hardest the bunny pointed the end of the hose straight at the Bear. Out rushed the air, and there was so much of it that it blew the Bear right up off the ground, over the trees and far away.

"Oh, wow!" howled the Bear who had pumped and blown himself away. "Oh, wow!" But that did him no good. He was so far off that he could not nibble the bunny's ears. Then Uncle Wiggily finished pumping up the tire himself, home he rode with the molasses, and the candy that Nurse Jane made was most delicious.

And if the puppy dog doesn't take the orange pie to fasten on his express wagon for a new wheel, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's shaving soap.

$25,000 DRIVE FOR BOY SCOUTS FUND UNDER WAY

Members of Civic Bodies Pledge Volunteer Aid in Campaign.

Two hundred of Oakland's leading businessmen gathered last night at a dinner at Hotel Oakland to forward the plans for the Boy Scout drive for funds which opens Monday. Most of the men are members of some of the civic clubs who have volunteered to work on the various teams.

Fred Hunter, superintendent of schools, delivered the principal speech, lauding the Boy Scout movement as a builder of better citizens and calling upon the people to support it.

Abe P. Leach, president of the Oakland Scouts, presided at the meeting and impressed upon the workers the need for funds which now faces the organization. Leach declared it is an imperative necessity to raise $25,000 if the organization is to function as efficiently as before.

Hunter said training for citizenship is the supreme ideal of education of the American people, and continued:

"The attitude of the American people upon this great question is unmistakable. They have expressed themselves over and over again upon it whenever a clear-cut issue arises as to the training of the American youth. California has given the greatest evidence in this line by increasing its state budget $21,000,000 by an overwhelming majority of 237,000 at the last general election."

"The Boy Scout organization is one of the finest of the institutions engaged in the training of citizenship. It stands for all the ideal American as it hopes to be. More than any other institution, it starts its work at the point where the interest of the boy is keenest. The Scout leadership asks the question, 'What is the boy interested in that makes for good citizenship?' and the campaign of instruction is then organized around the activities that answer this question."

"Oakland, because it stands for good schools and a high ideal of young American citizenship should liberally support the Boy Scout movement. Whatever Oakland may do in this line is an investment in good citizenship and prosperity for the future."

Yesterday afternoon eleven Eagle Scouts received their badges of this rank at a public ceremony at the lawn in front of the station at Fourteenth and Franklin streets. President Leach presented the badges to Robert Sandstrom, Ray Kennedy, Clinton Harris, William Barbus, Bennie Hill, Jean Dell, Rolister Smith, Jack Smith and Gerald Desmond.

Four other Eagles, not able to be present, will receive their badges at a later date, according to Scout Executive Homer J. Bemiss.

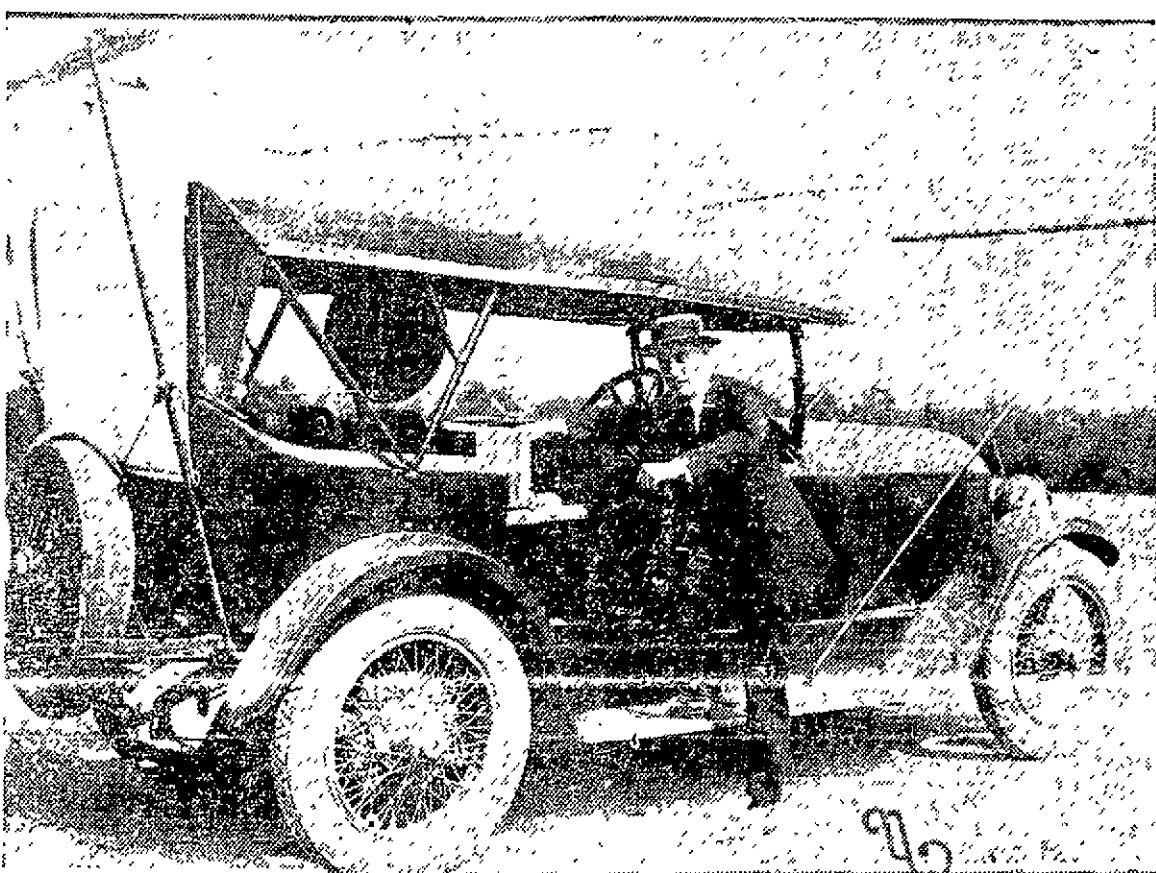

CANDIDATES STUDIED.
RICHMOND, Aug. 26.—The Men's Community Welfare Club of the Stage Presbyterian church held an open meeting at the church last night. The purpose of the meeting was to inform both men and women of the congregation about the candidates for election next Tuesday.

Radio Bandit Chaser

One of the radio-equipped automobiles which will participate in the "bandit" chase by radio tomorrow. It is one of the demonstrating cars of the Borch Radio Corporation of Oakland, equipped with the very best of radio apparatus and capable of receiving signals over a great distance. NILS E. BORCH, one of the foremost radio engineers of the west, who will operate the set during the chase, is standing by the car.

Harding to Prevail On Soldier Bonus

BY UNITED PRESS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Stamped into action by authentic information that President Harding would veto the bonus bill, backers of the measure today rallied a final drive to obtain votes to override a veto.

An unofficial poll, however, indicated that 48 votes—five more than needed—might sustain the president. On a showdown, this vote may be revised, but even staunch bonus senators are not encouraged over prospects that the bill can be enacted into law should Harding refuse to sign it.

Senator New, Indiana, told the senate he had definite word the president had not changed his mind, and would not agree to any measure which did not provide a revenue-raising plan. This plan the senate is not inclined to include in the McCumber bill, reliable informants declared.

RICHMOND, Aug. 26.—W. A. Vickery was elected commander of Richmond Post No. 10, American Legion, last night, succeeding Thomas M. Carlson, who recently resigned. John E. Smalley and Ruel S. Crose were named members of the executive committee to fill vacancies. Installation of new officers will be held Friday evening, September 8.

Rebekahs Planning Dance Thursday

RICHMOND, Aug. 26.—Arrangements for a dance to be given in Richmond hall next Thursday evening were made at the meeting of the dance committee of Richmond Rebekah lodge No. 208, at the home of Mrs. Mabel Chapman last night. Charles Cecil will be floor manager, assisted by Ernest Pearson. Hogue's orchestra will furnish music. The committee is composed of Mesdames Mabel Chapman, Adeline Clark, Barbara Anderson, Viola Stelmeyer and Margaret A. Shea.

AUTOS ASSURED FOR PURSUERS OF "RADIO BANDIT"

"Fugitive" Will Start at 9
A. M.; "Posse" Leaves
45 Minutes Later.

Practically all members of The TRIBUNE Radio Club who have made application to go on the "bandit" chase by radio tomorrow will be provided means of transportation and radio apparatus. Arrangements were completed at the meeting of the OTRC last night for the accommodation of those who want to go. Several club members have promised to provide receiving sets and portable aeriels for the extra cars that are not radio-equipped. There will be seven cars in the chase that are permanently equipped with radio. The other cars will be temporarily equipped and the apparatus will be sufficient to pick up the spark messages from KLX falling of the last reported location of the "bandit" car. Some will be able to pick up the radio-telephone messages, which will precede the spark messages at 15-minute intervals.

ASSEMBLY AT 8:30.

All those who are supplying radio sets, and those of the club who made application at last night's meeting to go on the chase are requested to be at The TRIBUNE's parking lot on Franklin street, across from The TRIBUNE building, as soon after 8:30 as possible in order that the proper installation of the sets may be made. The bandit car will leave the lot at 9 o'clock. The cars in the chase will be numbered and supplied with maps showing the country over which the "bandit" car may pass. These maps will correspond with one in the tower of KLX, so that when messages are sent out the exact location can be designated.

The cars that will participate in the chase will load up with observers and members of the OTRC and leave the lot at 9:45 o'clock, going to Lake Merritt, where they will tune in on KLX. The TRIBUNE's radio broadcasting station, and 6XAI, The TRIBUNE's spark transmitter. They will then "hop off" after the bandit.

BANDIT CAR LABELED.

The bandit car is a Durant six, painted especially for the occasion. Along its sides is painted "TRIBUNE Bandit Car," so that there will be no possibility of mistaking some other car. The Durant Motor Car Company will also furnish the extra cars needed to care for the OTRC members who failed to register in time to be accommodated in radio equipped automobiles. The Durant cars will be radio equipped, but with only temporary sets.

POINTS TO REMEMBER.

Remember that:
In circuits employing amplification the transformers should not be located too closely together and the leads from the transformers to the grids of the vacuum tubes should be made as short as possible. If the tube sockets and transformer cores are grounded much of the tendency to "howl" will be eliminated.

When two transmitting stations are using frequencies which do not differ greatly "beats" may be produced which have a frequency equal to the difference between the two transmitting frequencies. If these "beats" are within the audible range, they may cause interference in receiving stations.

A loud speaker may be connected to an amplifying circuit either by the use of a special output transformer or by inserting a choke coil. In the plate circuit of the amplifier, the choke coil and a shunting the choke coil and plate battery by a circuit containing the loud speaker in series with a condenser of large capacity. In either case the normal direct current of the plate circuit, by being connected to the lighting circuit, as the loud speaker, does not cause distortion of the music or speech.

When using a half-wave rectifier for converting the alternating current of the house lighting circuit into direct current for charging a storage battery, never take hold of the terminals while the rectifier is connected to the lighting circuit, as the shock to the human system, of the half-wave pulsations is very dangerous.

In order to determine the proper polarity of a low voltage direct current, the terminal of the circuit, as the terminal of the circuit in a glass filled with salt water. The terminal on which bubbles appear is the negative terminal. When charging a storage battery, the negative of the charging circuit should be connected to the negative pole of the battery.

When several stages of amplification are used, "howling" often takes place in the amplifier due to a portion of the amplified energy being fed back into the input circuit. This effect may be reduced by putting each tube and its transformer in a separate metallic case which is carefully grounded.

A new "E" battery of fifteen small dry cells has a potential of 22.5 volts when first put in service. It is practical to use this battery until the potential has fallen to 15 volts at which point it should be replaced by a new battery. Under normal conditions the life of this battery has a long life due to the fact that it does not supply current, its function being merely to maintain the grid at negative potential with respect to the cathode.

When resistance coupling is used in a multi-stage amplifier, it is necessary to increase the voltage of the plate battery from two to

Husband Choked Her, Wife's Divorce Plea

Because their baby cried and she could not pacify it her husband, William Kohler, choked her and cursed her, and because he was unable properly to adjust it, gasping he threw a monkey wrench at her, Mrs. Agnes Kohler charges in a divorce action she filed today. On another occasion this summer while the couple were visiting their two children at the Oakland summer camp, Mrs. Kohler says she became ill and was forced to return to their home alone, as her husband would not accompany her. Instead, he told her that if she was there when he returned something serious would happen.

The couple were married in Seattle, October 10, 1913, and separated a few weeks ago. The plaintiff asks the custody of a minor child, aged eight. She also asks the court to award her community property consisting of household furniture, and $50 a month alimony.

MAYOR ASKS AID TO BRING STATE BUREAUS TO CITY

Civic Bodies Urged to Name
Members of "Legislature Committee."

As the first step toward the establishment of a "legislature committee" of citizens, Mayor Davis today requested the presidents of the various civic, professional and lunch clubs to suggest members for the personnel of the committee.

The choosing of this committee, according to the mayor, will be the first step in an active campaign to bring various state branches to Oakland. After long negotiations Oakland finally secured a branch of the state motor vehicle department, but this is only one item of several possible ones. State bureau branches of all sorts are scattered throughout California, but Oakland has only one or two.

"Oakland needs these bureaus, and other recognition by the state, if Oakland is to maintain her place as a rapidly developing commercial and industrial center," says the mayor.

The mayor suggests that the presidents of the various organizations help to form as strong a committee as possible.

Outrunning The Marathoner

WHEN 10,000 ancient Greeks drove the Persian hordes from the plains of Marathon, they at once dispatched a courier to Athens to bear intelligence of their victory.

It took the messenger hours to reach the city, and so breathless was he that, as the people thronged eagerly about him to hear the news, he merely gasped "Victory is ours"—and fell dead. That was several hundred years B. C.

Today, the papers of the world would get the news almost simultaneously with its happening, slap extras on their presses, and shortly the thrilling story would be in the hands of some millions of readers.

Papers have supplanted the courier, multiplied his effectiveness and increased his speed a hundred-fold.

Not only does the newspaper make public the news in the world of events, but it also keeps our information up-to-date on every article of human need, whether food, clothing, household appliances, necessities or luxuries. The latter news is found in the advertisements.

Advertising will help you. Whether you realize it or not, advertising is a big, vital force in your life. Through it, American genius and American manufacturers are putting within your reach the many comforts and conveniences of modern life.

Do not overlook this mighty and indispensable service which this paper offers with the rest of the day's news.
